STATE,

"It's always fun to coach the freshmen and get an idea of what their mentality is and how they act, how they work.," Keeker continued.

"I think they've made some big strides in how they conduct themselves, how they deal with adversity. That's something big that we preach, how to deal with failure, and they've done that. I'm excited to see how they respond and how their season goes next year."

McNary's Division I squad went 9-4 and finished third in league play this season.

The Celtics are participating in a state tournament July 20-23 at Western Oregon University.
