Citizen tackles fleeing suspect

A Keizer man was bit by a suspect fleeing police on foot when he helped bring an end to the pursuit Sunday, July 16.

About 9 p.m., Officer Kevin DeMarco attempted to make a traffic stop on a 2002 Buick Regal in the 4900 block of 5th Place Northeast. The driver initially stopped the vehicle, but drove away as DeMarco exited his patrol unit. The suspect drove north through an apartment parking lot and then turned east until it reached a dead end with a fence.

The man exited the Buick and continued fleeing on foot. Officers Rodney Bamford and Scott Bigler arrived to help with the pursuit, but a private citizen tackled the suspect to the ground and held him there until Bamford could detain him in the 600 block of James Street Northeast.

The citizen was bitten in the struggle.

The suspect was later identified as 42-year-old Clarence

Ray Williams. He was taken to Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with assault, assaulting a police officer, as well as fleeing or attempting to elude in a vehicle and on foot.
