

Flood history display at KRP

New kiosks explaining the history of flooding in the Keizer area are now installed near the boat ramp in Keizer Rapids Park. The project was planned and executed by the Keizer Points of Interest Committee and Keizer Deputy City Recorder Debbie Lockhart.

To our visitors: Welcome

A very warm welcome to all our guests for the Total Eclipse Weekend!

We are so glad you have chosen to experience this amazing natural phenomenon with us.

As you await the Eclipse Totality on Monday morning, we hope you enjoy the hometown hospitality Keizer has to offer.

At Keizer Rapids Park Amphitheater there are concerts every evening and many recreational options during the day.

And at the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes stadium, EclipseFest runs all weekend, culminating in the first ever Eclipse Delay game on Monday morning.

Our businesses are looking forward to serving you. Please visit the Keizer Chamber of Commerce and the staff there will be happy to direct you to products or services you need.

We hope that your stay in Keizer is a pleasant one and that you will come back and visit us again.
