

City volunteers sought

The City of Keizer is looking for volunteers to serve on the following committees.

- The Budget Committee includes assisting the city council in the examination and analyzing of proposed budgets for the City of Keizer. The committee meets in May of each year to review the annual budget.

- The Keizer Points of Interest Committee identifies, authenticates, and memorializes sites of interest located in the Keizer area. Sites to be identified may be of the historical, geographical, botanical, or unusual. The committee meets monthly on the fourth Thursday at 6 p.m.

- The Parks Advisory Board reviews and studies issues that involve development and maintenance of city parks and makes recommendations to the city council. The board meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m.

- Youth liaison opportunities give high school students the chance to serve on various city committees. Check the city website for more information and to apply.

Anyone interested in applying for a position can pick up an application at Keizer City Hall at 930 Chemawa Road NE, access an electronic version at the www.keizer.org, or call/email Deputy City Recorder Debbie Lockhart at 503-856-3418 or lockhartd@keizer.org. Applications received by Nov. 8 will be considered at the Nov. 16 Volunteer Coordinating Committee meeting.

State Fair opens Aug. 25

The 152nd Oregon State Fair, which runs Aug. 25 through Sept. 4, returns to Salem with new rides, performances, Cirque Ma'Ceo, livestock, and even a LEGOS challenge.

New this year, the Oregon State Fair welcomes Cirque Ma'Ceo, a contemporary, high-energy acrobatic equestrian stunt show. Tickets are available on the Cirque Ma'Ceo site.

For concerts, nine out of 11 are free with fair admission. Each concert has approximately 6,000 free general admission seats on a first come, first served basis. Limited VIP seating is available for $35 for most concerts. The line-up includes Dwight Yoakam (Aug. 25), Joan Jett and the Blackhearts (Aug. 26), Salem Symphony/Windborne's Music of Pink Floyd (Aug. 27), Josh Turner (Aug. 28), For King and Country (Aug. 29), Kenny Loggins (Aug. 30), Third Eye Blind (Aug. 31), Vince Neil (Sept. 1), Trace Adkins (Sept. 2), Salem Symphony/Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's chest (Sept. 3), and Eddie Money (Sept. 4).

Also new this year, fairgoers will be treated to the Colors of Fun Fire Finale featuring the Sacred Fire Dance Company. Special discounts include:

- $1 every day for seniors. Honoring those ages 65 years and older.

- On Labor Day, Sept. 4, active duty military personnel, veterans, first responders, and their families get in free all day.

- On Aug. 28, kids ages 11 and under get in free all day.

- Everyone gets into the Fair for only $2 on Aug. 29.

- On Sept. 1, fairgoers can get in with $2 admission tickets courtesy of the Oregon Lottery.

Regular admission costs are:

- $8 for adults (12 to 64)
- $6 for kids (6 to 11)
- $1 for seniors (65 and up) every day

Parking is $5 cash only. For more information, visit oregonstatefair.org.

Woman sets fire to lawn, car

On Wednesday, Aug. 16, at 2 a.m., police responded to a report of a fire intentionally set by a suspect in the 5400 block of Chetco Court Northeast.

The owner of the home told officers he was in his garage when he heard a woman talking in his driveway. The man knew the woman because she and his wife were friends at one time. He went into his house and began alerting occupants inside the residence that the woman was outside and going through his wife's vehicle throwing papers onto the ground.

One of the couple's sons went outside and told police he saw the woman lighting the inside of a 2003 Nissan Xterra on fire.

The suspect lit the front passenger's seat of the Xterra on fire and then walked to the lawn where the witnesses said she then lit the grass on fire using an aerosol can. After igniting the flames, the suspect reportedly walked away saying she was going to "burn the house down and kill the baby."

There were numerous people inside the home at the time of the incident including a one-month-old child.

Police arrested Lacey Linn Probst, 36, and lodged her at the Marion County Correctional Facility. She was charged with attempted manslaughter, arson, and unlawful entry into a vehicle with the intent to commit a crime. Probst was previously arrested in April at the same address for harassment.

MAN DEFACES SPEED TRAILER, ENDS UP CUFFED

A man who used a marker to change the posted speed limit on a speed radar reader from 30 to 300 mph was arrested and charged with unlawfully applying graffiti and criminal mischief on Thursday, Aug. 17.

Keizer Police Department Sgt. Jeff Goodman was approached by a witness about 8 p.m. in the 1500 block of Chemawa Road North where officers had deployed portable radar readers earlier in the day.

The witness observed a male suspect defacing the speed sign on the trailer that was deployed on the north side of Chemawa Road for westbound traffic. Goodman was able to obtain a description of the suspect, who was last seen leaving the area with a female, and caught up with the couple at Rushmore Avenue near Nomore Street.

Goodman confronted the suspect who admitted he had just defaced the speed sign. When asked why, the man responded he was "just being stupid." He was taken into custody without any further incident.

Joshua Thompson, 28, was taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility.
