

Roundup: Lady Celts start season with win

McNary's girls soccer team defeated Woodburn 1-0 on Tuesday, Aug. 29 to begin the 2017 campaign.

Head coach A.J. Nash said the Lady Celts controlled the majority of the possession in the opening half, but struggled to finish against a well-organized and disciplined Woodburn defense.

McNary was flagged nine times for off-sides in the first half due to a disciplined Woodburn backline.

In the 25th minute junior Katy Wyatt connected with a header from a corner kick driven to the back post by junior Gina Munguia that glanced off the top of the cross bar.

Just three minutes later, strong pressure by sophomore forward Haley Hughes created a turnover deep in the Woodburn end that was gathered by junior Abigail Hawley who served the ball across the box to Katy Wyatt for the finish and the Lady Celts took a 1-0 lead into the half.

In the second half, Nash said McNary kept up great team pressure, and again controlled the majority of the possession.

In the 55th minute, sophomore Julie Dieker had a strong header off a corner kick from Gina Munguia that forced a save from the Woodburn keeper.

The Bulldogs threatened on a few counter attacks, but the McNary defense was up to the challenge.

The Celts frontline forced a couple great saves by the Woodburn keeper who kept the scoreline close, and McNary held onto the win.

"Both teams kept great intensity for the entire 80 minutes and battled up to the final whistle," Nash said.

McNary's boys soccer team shut out Aloha 2-0 in its season opener on Monday, Aug. 28.

Francisco Rios scored both goals for the Celts. The first came in the 31st minute on a free kick 25 yards out, shot in the upper right corner of the goal.

Rios then added another free kick from 20 yards away in the 63rd minute.

McNary goalkeeper Sebastian Lopez had four saves in the victory.

"Still a lot of work to do, long ways to go but this is a good start of the season," Celts head coach Miguel Camarena said.

To prepare for the season opener, the Celtics participated in a jamboree at Marist on Friday, Aug. 25. McNary ran 12 plays on offense and defense against Canby, the host Spartans and then Corvallis.

After a slow start, Auvinen thought McNary improved with each scrimmage.

"We got better as the day progressed," he said. "First game, especially on defense we weren't very good. I think we were used to playing ourselves so we needed to find another gear and get a little more of a killer instinct. Against Canby, we were feeling our way and getting used to varsity game speed. Marist, we were better and then even better against Corvallis."

This Friday's home game against North Salem kicks off at 7 p.m.

McNary senior Jakoby Doke guaranteed the Celtics will be ready.

"It's just a matter of walking in there and thinking any team can win any game," Doke said. "No game is given to you. We just have to play as hard as we can just like any other game."
