

Duo tries to pass fake C-notes

Two women were arrested after trying to pass fake $100 bills at two Keizer businesses during the eclipse on Aug. 21.

The incidents were reported about 11 a.m. at Revis Keizer Automotive and B&S Market. One woman allegedly used a fake bill to purchase $30 in Lottery tickets at B&S. She received $70 in change and the tickets before the clerk began to suspect the bill was fake.

The clerk confronted the woman in the parking lot and demanded the tickets and change back. The woman complied and was given back the fake $100 bill.

The suspect left the area on foot and was found by police trespassing through the backyard of a home on Mistletoe Loop N. while attempting to reach the Courthouse Athletic Club parking lot. Kannita Marie Kelly, 18, was arrested for three outstanding warrants and charged with forgery and theft.

Further investigation revealed the woman in B&S

Market was trying to reach a car in the Courthouse parking lot with a man standing outside the vehicle and a woman inside.

It was later determined that the woman in the vehicle allegedly purchased $24 in items from Revis Keizer Automotive and received $76 in change.

Danielle J. Johnson, 21, of Portland, was arrested and charged with forgery. She denied knowing the bill was fake when officers questioned her.

Officers seized a 2005 Chevrolet Impala and are working on a search warrant for the vehicle, which is believed to contain additional evidence of criminal activity.

KEIZER COP ON CHASE

On Friday, Aug. 25, Keizer Officer Esteban Perez attempted to stop a vehicle for a minor traffic violation that led to a chase and arrest.

About 1 a.m., Perez attempted to pull over a 2001 BMW, activating his lights as the driver pulled into Plymouth Square Apartments. The driver did not stop, turned around and pulled back onto eastbound Plymouth Drive Northeast.

Perez followed the vehicle to Cherry Avenue and then Shangri-La Avenue heading west. When the suspect turned into Parkway Village Apartments, Perez waited at the only entrance/exit. Soon thereafter, a witness contacted Perez and said the they saw the suspect flee on foot.

Officer Scott Keniston located the fleeing suspect near the McDonalds on Broadway and took him into custody after pointing his Taser at him. A firearm was found inside the vehicle.

Jake Montano, 25, of Salem, was taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility and charged with being a felon in possession of a weapon, fleeing or attempting to elude an officer, driving while suspended and unlawful possession of methamphetamine.

The gun was later determined to have been stolen in a 2013 incident reported to the Salem Police Department.
