

Lady Celts start 3-0

McNary's girls soccer team has yet to allow a goal in three games after going to Gresham and winning 2-0 on Thursday, Sept. 7.

"Both teams came out with energy, and Gresham brought a level physicality and grit that McNary had not seen yet this season," head coach A.J. Nash said. "In the opening ten minutes play was even; then McNary began to settle in and started to create chances."

In the 22nd minute, Gina Munguia served a corner kick to Jessy Shore, who fired a header off the crossbar.

After Katy Wyatt missed a shot just outside the far post, the Lady Celts finally got on the scoreboard in the 35th minute as Izzy Haselip beat her defender on the outside and drove a ball into the box that was fumbled by the keeper and finished by Abigail Hawley.

Led by Samantha Alfano, McNary continued to bring consistent defensive pressure in the second half.

In the 68th minute, Hawley then found space on the right wing and whipped a cross that was finished on a header by Wyatt to give the Lady Celts an insurance goal.

Goalkeeper Sydney Snapp picked up her third shutout of the season.

McNary hosts Battle Ground, Wash. on Saturday, Sept. 16 at 3 p.m. in its final non-league match of the season.

The Lady Celts open Greater Valley Conference play on Tuesday, Sept. 19 at West Salem.

McNary sophomore Samantha Alfano has led the Lady Celts to three shutouts this season.

Celtics blank Lebanon

McNary's boys soccer team went to Lebanon and won 4-0 on Thursday, Sept. 7.

The Celtics scored their first goal in the opening minute of play as Q Gamble finished a cross from Miguel Bravo.

McNary put more shots on goal in the first half but couldn't get any past Lebanon's keeper. But just like the first half, the Celtics added a quick goal in the second when Michael Reyes was able to find the back of the net with an assist from Alex Salazar.

McNary added two more goals in the final eight minutes. First, Gamble scored his second goal with another assist from Salazar. Eli Petilo then completed the scoring on an assist by Reyes.

Goalkeeper Charles Varela had eight saves in the victory.

The Celtics wrap up non-league play on Saturday, Sept. 16 at 11 a.m. against Madison. McNary then hosts West Salem on Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. in its first GVC match.

"That's something that they need to learn from this. They know better."

Slow starts have been a common theme this season. McNary played a similar match at McKay.

"They have to find their groove right off the bat," DeMello said. "It's something that we've been working on. It's the goal they set every single game. They just need to come out strong straight from the get go and remember routines when we're at away games."

The Lady Celts had less trouble in the second and third games, winning easily 25-12 and 25-13.

"We were looking to clean up our passes," DeMello said. "They were really tight to the net. We need to make sure that we clean that up as well as everything you do before you touch a ball. We started connecting. We got our middles on. We started distributing the ball and defense, they made their adjustments. The girls finally started getting where they needed to be. Sometimes it's the difference between one step whether or not you can make that play."

Valerie Diede finished the match with nine kills and five blocks. Caiya Ewert had five kills and six blocks. Zoie Warner added five kills, seven digs and six aces while leading the Lady Celts in serve receive percentage.

The win improved McNary's record to 4-1 with the only loss coming to undefeated South Salem.

"We're just taking it one day and one game at a time," DeMello said. "I always see what we can improve on. Right now they're serving well. They're taking advantage of what they can and when they get momentum we tend to get runs. That's all I can ask of them right now."

that performance with 350 yards rushing and a 50-21 win over the Celtics.

"We didn't do a great job of manning our gaps," McNary head coach Jeff Auvinen said of last season's game with Sprague. "They're going to try to be a physical team. We need to be able to defeat blocks and go in our gap and tackle well. I think we're more disciplined this year. I don't know if we're more physical inside but I think we're more disciplined and I think it's going to benefit us."

While Sprague graduated

one half of its running back tandem in Dane McKinney, who scored two touchdowns against the Celtics last season, Noah Mellen returns as well as quarterback Spencer Plant and tight end/defensive end Teagan Quitoriano, who has committed to the University of Oregon.

"We've got to play harder up front than we have ever played," Kiser said. "They have a good offense but I feel like if we step up and practice harder and show them a better defense and throw them off and get into their heads a little bit, and by doing that we have somebody else (McNary) that deserves to be up in the top (of the GVC) than just them

(Sprague) and West."

The Olympians return only one starter on the offensive line.

"They've got a young line, a bunch of inexperienced guys, but they do a good job of coaching line over there," Auvinen said.

Auvinen pointed to limiting penalties and winning the turnover margin as keys to the game. McNary has a plus-5 turnover margin through the first two games but has 185 yards in penalties.

"I think if we play well, we'll be in good shape," Auvinen said. "We tell the kids all of the time, 'Do what you can to get better and the scoreboard will take care of itself!'"
