

Car break-in leads to chase, arrest

Alert neighbors helped lead police to the suspect in a pair of car break-ins Sunday, Sept. 10.

A suspicious person was reported in the 1300 block of Horizon Ridge Court about 8 a.m. The caller reported a white male adult allegedly breaking into a neighbor's car. The suspect was seen running in the direction of River Road North.

While responding to the initial report, several other callers reported the suspect traveling through private property in the area of Swingwood Drive Northeast.

With the help of those callers, officers caught up with the suspect as he continued running across River Road North and through the Hidden Creek Apartments on Foothill Court Northeast.

When the man was confronted by an officer on Wheatland Drive North, he turned east, but eventually responded to commands to stop running and was placed under arrest without further incident.

Andrew David Ramsey, of Salem, was arrested and charged with unlawful entry into a vehicle, intent to commit theft, and criminal trespass.

Investigating officers developed probable cause that Ramsey unlocked and entered two vehicles and took almost $400 worth of property including: a power inverter, binoculars, a Leatherman-type tool, drill bit set, safety glasses, a torch, a cellular smartphone, cell phone car charger and a bank check that was made payable to one of the victims.

Ramsey was transported to Marion County Correctional Facility.

"This was a great example of neighbors watching out for their neighbors and reporting suspicious behavior to the police when they see it occurring. Doing so led to the arrest of this suspect," said Deputy Chief Jeffrey Kuhns.

MAN ARRESTED FOR DUII AFTER CRASH
Keizer police arrested a 35-year-old Keizer man on suspicion of driving under the influence of intoxicants after crashing into another vehicle Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Officers responded to a report of a crash in the 4100 block of Verda Lane Northeast about 1:30 p.m. The incident involved a 2000 Ford Focus and 2007 Chevrolet Impala. Neither driver was injured, but officers began to suspect one of the drivers who smelled of alcohol. Questioning continued and the man was eventually asked to perform a field sobriety test. He agreed and was taken into custody without incident after probable cause was developed.

Kevin Scott Rapoza was arrested and charged with DUII and reckless endangering. He was transported to the Marion County Correctional Facility.

Post files for re-election

State Rep. Bill Post (R-Keizer) filed for re-election and will seek a third term representing Keizer, St. Paul and Newberg in the Oregon Legislature.

In announcing his re-election plans on Monday, Sept. 11, Rep. Post vowed to continue fighting for lower taxes and renewed his commitment to standing up for Oregonians' constitutional rights.

"It has been an incredible honor to serve the people of House District 25 in the Legislature these last few years," said Rep. Post. "During this time, I have held steadfast in my pledge to oppose unnecessary tax increases and job-killing regulations. I have also fought every day to protect the constitutional rights of Oregonians, including the unborn. I am proud of my record and hope to once again earn the support of Keizer, St. Paul and Newberg residents."

Post has been a vocal opponent of gun control measures and pro-abortion legislation. He has also championed Oregon farmers and small businesses, earning a 100 percent rating from both the Oregon Farm Bureau and the National Federation of Independent Business in Oregon.

Post was first elected to the Oregon House in 2014. He currently serves on the House Judiciary Committee, House Economic Development and Trade Committee and the House Committee on Veterans and Emergency Preparedness.
