Fleeing driver plows into carport

A fleeing teenage driver crashed into a carport just as police were going to call off a pursuit.

A 17-year-old driver was arrested after leading Keizer police on a brief chase just before midnight Sunday, Sept. 17.

Officer Esteban Perez was responding to a criminal mischief complaint on Orchard Street North where a caller reported a Nissan Maxima had driven past her car and the occupants threw bricks at it.

En route to the address, Perez spotted a 2004 Nissan Maxima on 15th Avenue North and noticed a taillight on the vehicle was emitting white light, a traffic infraction, and suspected it might be the vehicle involved in the brick-throwing.

Esteban began following the Maxima and activated his overhead lights and siren in an attempt to conduct a traffic stop while eastbound on Willow Lake Road. The driver showed no intention of stopping and Perez was soon traveling at 55 mph with the suspect car still pulling away. Perez made a decision to terminate the pursuit and was calling into dispatch when the Maxima failed to stop at a stop sign at Willow Lake Road North and Windsor Island Road North. The vehicle continued across Willow Lake Road and crashed into a carport at 5210 Windsor Island Road North.

Immediately after the crash the driver exited the vehicle, but Perez was right behind him. The driver complied with verbal commands as Perez drew his gun and was taken into custody without further incident once cover officers arrived.

The driver was charged with recklessly endangering another person, reckless driving, fleeing or attempting to elude a police officer, assault and driving under the influence of intoxicants. Two passengers were also in the Maxima at the time of the crash.
