

Man cuffed for trespassing, meth in vacant home

A transient man was arrested for trespassing and possession of methamphetamine when neighbors spotted him entering a vacant home Friday, Sept. 25.

Keizer Police Department was contacted when witnesses spotted a male entering a home in the 1100 block of Swingwood Court Northeast. The owners of the home were known to be out of town and the house had a "For Sale" sign out front. The witnesses contacted the daughter of one of the owners who called police.

Officer Jeremy Fletcher responded and entered the home through the back door and arrested Eddie Angel Teves, 35, for trespassing and possession of a methamphetamine.

Fletcher reported there was garbage strewn throughout the home including hypodermic needles, baggies for packaging controlled substances and other personal belongings of trespassers. Teves told police other homeless men had also been using the house.

After receiving consent to search Teves' backpack, Fletcher found a sandwich bag that tested positive for methamphetamine with a field test.

Teves was taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with first-degree trespass and possession of methamphetamine. He was arraigned in court Tuesday, Sept. 26.
