

McNary goalkeeper Sydney Snapp had 11 saves at South Salem on Thursday, Oct. 19.

body in the state," Nash said. "We try to avoid the top four (Jesuit, Sunset, South Eugene and Cleveland). Eight to 22, there's not a lot of separation. We're going to be in it. We're going to be competitive. We're definitely going to have the opportunity to come away with the victory."

The Lady Celts' best chances to score at South Salem came in the first half as McNary had three corner kicks, two of which were saved off the goal line with the keeper beat.

McNary goalkeeper Sydney Snapp had 11 saves, including seven in the second half.

"It was intense, really fun to play," Snapp said. "This was definitely one of our toughest battles but our defense was awesome and were a huge help in that game and did a lot for us. It's kind of fun to have action. I think we can handle whatever comes at us."

The Lady Celts are the only team in the GVC to hold South Salem scoreless.

"We've been very proud of Sydney's performance this year," Nash said. "She's greatly improved. Our defense is stingy."

While McNary's eight wins are the most in the programs history, the Lady Celts know the playoffs are a new season.

"We know we can't count on that and we have to play our best," junior Gina Mun-guia said.

15th. Despite its lofty numbers, Ebbs said McNary won't give West Salem anything.

"We've been watching some film but the key to being successful against them is not giving them too much respect because they have to earn that from us," Ebbs said.

West Salem is led on offense by quarterback Grant Thies, running back Jacob Denning and receivers Anthony Gould and Micah Pugh.

"They're aggressive," McNary head coach Jeff Auvinen said of the Titans. "They're good both offensively and defensively. They've got good athletes. They're well coached. We need to play well in all three facets against a good team and it's going to be a playoff type atmosphere. Most weeks we've continued to take a step up so we're going to continue to do that."

West Salem defeated Sprague and McMinnville, the two teams that beat McNary, by a combined score of 97-13, but Auvinen isn't putting any stock in that.

"Every matchup is different," he said.

Ebbs, who plays H-back as well as linebacker, said the key will be controlling the time of possession and keeping the ball away from West Salem's playmakers.

"Our offense has to keep doing what we do best," Ebbs said.

"We've got to put the ball in the end zone, keep the ball moving, keep our offense with the ball."

Seniors Jakoby Doke (shoulder) and Blake Norton (back) both missed Monday's practice recovering from injuries but Auvinen expects both to play against West Salem.

through the play. It was a pretty good snap. The guy (North Medford quarterback Josh Robbins) mishandles it and then we kick it and Junior picks it up and runs it in."

The Black Tornado opened the second half running the ball inside McNary's 10-yard line but the Celtic defense was able to hold on fourth down.

"We were a little worried because they had got together that (first half) drive and we thought they were going to power it right at us again and they tried," Auvinen said. "We responded and played with more confidence. It ended up being a really good day."

McNary scored two more touchdowns in the third quarter on a pass from Barker to Williams and a run by Walling to bust the game open and take a commanding 40-13 lead.

"We were thinking it was going to be a pretty close game but going down there and putting the work to them was a pretty good confidence booster," Ebbs said.

Solorio added an interception before North Medford scored the final touchdown of the night with 10:51 remaining. The Celtics were then able to run out the clock.

"We handled ourselves really well," Auvinen said. "They were not as good as they were last year. They lost some kids. We played a ton better than we did last year. We did play really well offensively. We played well defensively."

Walling rushed for 102 yards on 18 carries and caught two passes for 25 yards. Robert Benson had 84 yards on 17 attempts. Barker completed 22 of 31 passes for 301 yards and four touchdowns. Jacob Jackson caught eight passes for 96 yards. Williams had three receptions for 97 yards.

"Our O-line made huge holes for us, gave Erik some time in the pocket," Walling said. "I think Erik did really well throwing and it was easy for me to run the ball with the O-line doing so well."

did great, everyone played tonight. We had more girls on tonight than we've had in a couple of games."

McNary finished the regular season 10-12 overall and fourth in the Greater Valley Conference at 9-7. South Salem was 18-7 and second in the league at 14-2.

"They're a tough team but I think we held in there," Salinas said. "The score was close. We just had to fix a few of our errors and I think we would have had them but overall it was really fun and they're good competition. I'm really happy with how we played. I wish it would've went our way but I'm proud of my team. We played our hardest and I'm going to miss them a lot."

Van Voorhis added, "It was interesting to have it be my last year and walk into the team room and everybody decorating and videoing."

DeMello needed leadership

from the seniors in her first year at McNary.

"It's always important because it sets the culture," DeMello said. "You want the legacy to carry on. What do you want to leave behind? Their leadership has been huge, not just technically but the intangibles, the attitude, the effort, the out-hustle, the workhorse, those are all encompassed by our seniors."
