

Man waits for arrest at business break-in

A man seeking mental health treatment broke into a River Road business to gain the attention of authorities.

About 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 21, Keizer police were summoned to Keizer Auto Wholesale at 5640 River Road N. The owner of the business, David Waldner, told police that a clerk working at the neighboring 7-Eleven had called him at home regarding a person "trashing" the auto dealership.

Waldner responded to the business and found a man inside the office. A sliding glass door leading into the business and a window had been damaged by the suspect. When Waldner called 9-1-1, he told the dispatcher the suspect was cooperative and would be waiting for the police to come arrest him.

The suspect told responding officers he wanted to be arrested so he could receive some mental health help.

Alexander Reyes Maldonado, 23, of Salem was arrested and taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with one count of criminal mischief, one count of criminal trespass and one count of burglary.
