5 YEARS AGO

Hope for Henry

Trish Leavitt was devastated when she found out her pet poodle, Riley, had been killed by a coyote. After being contacted by Trish's mother, Hopes Haven, a dog rescue organization presented Trish with Henry: a daschund-yorkie mix. "I think it's going to work out," Trish said.

Little League battle heats up

There are now two Keizer Little League boards claiming the right to manage Keizer's Little League Park. Debbie Bedell, an administrator, declared that the board headed by Cary Schneider was no longer recognized as a legal board. Schneider disagrees.

Councilors bid adieu to a mentor, teacher, friend

Monday night's Keizer City Council meeting turned into part tribute, part celebrity roast. A parade of current and former city officials took to the microphone to honor Councilor Jerry McGee, who is leaving after 12 years on the council.

Ex-manager busted in chamber theft

The former manager of the Keizer Chamber of Commerce was arrested Tuesday in connection with the theft of more than $12,000 in Chamber funds.

Web Poll

Results

Is Keizer the right size?

38% – It's just the right size.

28% – It needs to expand.

25% – We need to fill the space we already have.

9% – Expand by building up, not out.
