Today in History

Ludwig van Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Op. 67—the "Fifth Symphony"—received its world premiere at Theater an der Wien in Vienna. Initial reviews failed to recognize it as one of the greatest pieces of music ever written. The concert venue was freezing cold; it was more than two hours into a mammoth four-hour program before the piece began; and the orchestra played poorly enough that day to force the nearly deaf composer—also acting as conductor and pianist—to stop the ensemble partway into one passage and start again from the very beginning.

Elks box up holiday help for 225 families

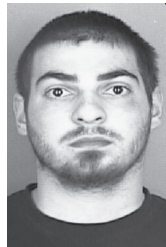

A: Candis Mediger, Roberta Young and Marianna Wampler help fill the box of Ginger Rhine. B: Darlene Ferschweiler and Dianne and Ryan Wisser dole out canned goods. C: Fisher VanSlyke picks up a box for filling. Students Macie and Rianna Nowlin and Laney VanSlyke lent helping hands to the effort.

The Keizer Elks helped make the holidays brighter for 225 local families on Saturday, Dec. 16. Elks members packaged up food boxes for the families Friday, Dec. 15, in a massive production line before delivering them on Saturday. Of the 225 families that received boxes, 75 were for families of deployed soldiers and the rest went to families identified by the Head Start program and Keizer schools. Gubser Elementary School contributed 4,000 pounds of food to the cause, but also had the most families receiving boxes this year. The Elks raised nearly $5,000 in donations to fill in the gaps. "It's just amazing what people give to this event. It's the biggest all year," said organizer Robin Linville.

Teen dies in roll over, driver arrested

An 18-year-old Salem woman died as the result of a single-vehicle roll over crash just north of Keizer on Saturday, Dec. 16.

The Marion County Sheriff's Office CRASH Team believe that Justin Coakley, 21, was driving his Ford truck north on Windsor Island Road when he lost control causing the vehicle to roll over. As a result of the crash, Coakley and his passenger Alysia Frost, 20, of Portland, were transported to the Salem Hospital with non-life threatening injuries. A second passenger in the vehicle, Karlie Thometz, 18, of Salem was killed instantly. The crash occurred about 4:20 a.m.

J. Coakley

After being released from the hospital, Coakley was arrested by deputies and lodged at the Marion County Correctional Facility. He is charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants, manslaughter, reckless endangering, and assault.

With the holiday season in full swing, police are reminding area residents to drive sober. The Marion County Sheriff's Office asks that if you are going to celebrate, please celebrate responsibly and have a sober driver before hitting the roadway.

Black Rock Coffee coming in 2018

By ERIC A. HOWALD
Of the Keizertimes

Keizer residents will have another option for coffee next summer.

Black Rock Coffee Bar will open a new drive-thru-only location at the northeast corner of River Road North and Dietz Avenue Northeast.

Franchiser Adam Rutlege and his business partner Lucas Collins have already submitted site plans to the city for approval. Rutlege expects to break ground in February and have the new coffee stand up and running in June.

Rutlege and Collins already own three Black Rock locations, one on Lancaster Drive Northeast, one in Albany, and one in Eagle Point near Bend.

"Keizer looked like a good market for us and we are excited to be coming to town," Rutlege said.

He and Collins purchased the Salem location after it shut down in 2010 and brought it back to life.

"I had managed coffee shops throughout college. The owners of Black Rock knew me from that and called me when the Salem store closed," Rutlege said.

Black Rock serves standard coffee drinks with some added perks. Beans are roasted fresh every Monday in Portland and never more than a week old.

"That makes a huge difference," Rutlege said. "Our most popular drink is a caramel blondie white chocolate mocha. It uses a proprietary white chocolate milk that is only available at Black Rock."

The coffee stand will be 14-feet-by-32-feet and employ about 10 people. Collins, a Salem local, will manage the shop.
