Volcanoes dress McNary T-ballers

The Salem-Keizer Volcanoes have knocked one out of the park with McNary Youth Baseball T-ball players and their coaches.

"The Volcanoes have committed to providing 120 shirts to our free T-ball program," said Bo Lane, MYB vice-president. "The shirts will have the Volcanoes' logo on front. To say the kids are excited is quite the understatement."

The free coed T-ball program started as a "thank you" to the community for supporting the club's recent name change from the Keizer Youth Sports Association to McNary

Youth Baseball.

"The free T-ball program is a great way to get children involved in the sport at a formative age," said Jerry Walker, owner of the Volcanoes, Keizer's minor league team and an affiliate of the San Francisco Giants since its inception in 1997. "We are very happy to be associated with this terrific program."

MYB provides "a wholesome environment for youth in grades K-8 to participate in baseball and softball activities, developing "good sportsmanship through a competitive spirit."

The club's mission is to provide opportunities for personal growth and development of young athletes while reinforcing positive influences, self-confidence and self-esteem.

"McNary Youth Baseball depends on the generosity of its donors to fulfill its mission," said Ryan Walsh, president of MYB. "The Salem-Keizer Volcanoes donation will help ensure that every young player will have the best baseball experience this coming spring."

Registration for all levels is now available online at www.mcniaryyouthbaseball.com.
