

MISSING: Woman last seen July 16

 more than $100,000 in time and other resources. KPD did request the reward assistance from the FBI, it did the same with Crime Stoppers. KPD Det. Andy Phelps is the lead investigator on the case.

The FBI is not taking over the investigation, KPD remains the lead agency on the case.

Investigators have identified both men seen leaving the bar with Martinez. One of them, 30-year old Jaime Alvarez-Olivera, is a person of interest in disappearance. Alvarez-Olivera was last thought to reside in the Woodburn area, however investigators have not been able to determine exactly where he resided or with whom prior to July 16. He was last known to be employed locally as a laborer who harvested berries. Identifying his residence or individuals he lived or worked with, or who may have known or associated with him, could be important to the ongoing investigation.

Alvarez-Olivera is believed to have left the Marion County area on July 16, 2017, a short time after Martinez was last seen with him. He has not been located and his whereabouts are unknown. Anyone who believes they may have information about where Alvarez-Olivera lived, whom he lived or associated with, or whom he may have worked with, or where he might have gone is asked to contact the Keizer Police Department at 503-856-3529.

Martinez is Hispanic, 5-foot-3, with long black hair and multiple tattoos. Two on her chest read "Dominguez" and "Trust No One."

The Keizer Police Department is asking anyone who may have information about the disappearance of Cynthia Martinez to please come forward. Those who wish to remain anonymous may do so.

Park assignments take on new seriousness

Each member of the Keizer Parks Advisory Board have been assigned certain parks to oversee for years, but the current board members are planning to take it to the next level.

In making the assignments for the next year, Board Chairman David Loudon set a new goal.

"I would like to assign the parks and take the opportunity for parks board members to dig into the issues at the park and report back to the whole board," Loudon said.

Board members with even-numbered positions on the Keizer Advisory Board will begin reporting at next month's meeting. Odd-numbered board positions will report in May and alternate going forward.

The idea is to not only provide status updates, but also help decide how a $4-per-month parks services fee enacted last year could be used to bolster offerings throughout the park network.

Loudon hoped to get board members to take on parks the board members are unfamiliar with, but ended up splitting the difference by allowing members to pick one park they wanted to be involved with and picking the name of a second park out of a hat. With 19 Keizer parks, it meant each board member got two. All board members will share responsibility for Keizer Rapids Park.

Assignments were as follows: Loudon, Bair and Ben Miller parks; Donna Bradley, Ryan Hill and Northridge; Wayne Frey, Country Glen and Hidden Creek; Jim Taylor, Sunset and Northview; Dylan Juran, Palma Ceia and Willamette Manor; Matt Lawyer, Chalmers Jones/Carlson Skate Park and Bob Newton; Zaira Flores Marin, Claggett Creek and Wallace House; Cat Gaynor, Meadows and Clear Lake; Clint Holland, Keizer Little League and Whitam.
