Jenkins, former Keizer 1st Citizen, passes

John Carpenter Jenkins

January 22, 1924 – April 1, 2018

John Carpenter Jenkins passed away on April 1, Easter Sunday. John was preceded in death by his parents, Roger and Evelyn Jenkins, by a brother, William Albert, who died when he was seven years old, and by a brother, Robert Charles, who died in 2007. John is survived by his wife, Regina, sons Richard and David, and daughter Catherine Brown (Bob) of Spokane, Washington.

An active community volunteer, John was a member of the Rotary Club of Keizer, John Knox Presbyterian Church and Packmaster of Keizer Cub Pack. He was named Keizer's First Citizen in 1994 by the Keizer Chamber of Commerce. John served as a member of the Keizer Heritage Foundation Board of Directors for several years in the early 2000s.

John was born in Omaha, Nebraska, where he attended grade school, Benson High School. He started at Omaha University there, but was drafted into the Army on his 18th birthday. He received his basic training in Florida and afterwards he was transferred to Fresno, Calif., where he was placed in the 350th Signal Company Wing. He was then sent to a basic radio school for six months in Valparaiso, Indiana. Upon completion of that training he was returned to Fresno where he received more military training before being promoted to the rank of Corporal and was sent to the Island of Guam. On Guam the 350th was assigned to providing radio communication between Army aircraft in flight and their headquarters on Guam. At the end of the war John signed up to go to the University of Nebraska and take an engineering course, paid for by the G.I. Bill. He also met Regina Hoyer at a church activity and they got along very well. So well, in fact, that they were married on December 22, 1947. For recreation they had a 21-foot open deck sail boat they enjoyed sailing on Detroit Lake. They also had a travel trailer that they used on camping and tour-trips in the region around Salem.

John and Regina had three children. The oldest, Richard, is married to Mary and they have two girls, Holly and Debbie, both of whom are unmarried. Their daughter, Catherine, is married to Bob Brown. They have two children, a boy and a girl, both of whom are married, and the boy has children. Their third child, David, lives in Keizer.

John worked for years at the Oregon Department of Transportation's Highway Division in the Materials Division where he ended his career as a supervisor.

Arrangements were by Keizer Funeral Chapel. A memorial service will be scheduled later.

Council shines spotlight on child abuse, neglect

By ERIC A. HOWALD
Of the Keizertimes

Mayor Cathy Clark signed a proclamation declaring is Child Abuse Prevention month in Keizer at a meeting of the Keizer City Council Monday, April 2.

The proclamation was submitted to the city by Shaney Starr, executive director of Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), which moved to a new location on River Road North in Keizer last year.

"(There is) an unfortunate number of child abuse incidents and victims that continue to increase in our community and our county and also statewide," Starr said.

In 2016, there were 11,843 confirmed cases of child abuse and neglect statewide, an increase of more than 1,400 from 2015. Confirmed cases in Marion County rose by more than 400 in the same time period.

"The stark reality is that we all need to do more and need to do more on the abuse prevention side," Starr said.

CASA recruits and trains volunteers to act as advocates for children in foster care. To find out more about the program, visit www.casamarionor.org. The next CASA orientation will be held Monday, April 16.

CASA is sponsoring a fund-raising Superhero Race April 14 at Salem's Riverfront Park. Details and registration are available at runsignup.com.

On April 20, Elizabeth Smart will give a talk at Salem's Elsinore Theater in support of CASA. Tickets range from $37.50 to $45. Smart was abducted from her home at 14 and held in captivity for nine months until she was rescued. Tickets are available at www.ticketwest.com.
