is an old wood structure that has reached the end of its life," Lawyer said.

In advance of the bridge replacement, a storm drain pipe is being realigned from Verda Avenue northeast west to Claggett Creek itself.

About seven homes are expected to be impacted along the construction site, but residents will continue to have access.

Other travelers would be wise to seek out new routes to their destinations. A few years ago, when the roundabout at Chemawa Road Northeast and Verda was being constructed, motorists who were caught disobeying the road closure were hit with fines of more than $400 per occurrence.

"This is going to be a little more difficult because equipment will block the way," Lawyer said.

K&E's winning bid for the project amounted to $1,753,615.30. Lawyer said the financing for the project will all come from the local level, but it will require taking out a loan.

"We're looking at a 15-year note and payments will come out of the street fund," he said.

KRP walk/run supports diabetes camp for kids

A 10K run and 5K walk/run will be held at Keizer Rapids Park to support the Chris Dudley Foundation (CDF), which operates an annual camp for kids with Type I and Type II diabetes. The race will be held on April 28 at 8:30 a.m.

CDF is a non-profit dedicated to helping people with diabetes lead active, healthy lives. Individual registration for the 5K is $40, the 10K is $45. Children 12 and under can be registered for the discounted price of $30 for both events. Spread the word and assemble your team from your family, coworkers, or friends.

Group registrations of 10 or more people will be given $5 off of the cost of each individual. Visit chrisdudley.org for relevant information or contact kelsey@chrisdudley.org. Registration ends on April 21. No day-of-race registration.

Military uniforms on display at Capitol

Salem's capitol building will be hosting the Salem Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) military uniform display until April 20.

The exhibit is in the Oregon State Capitol Galleria and has 70 new uniforms that have not been on display before, including two uniforms from Medal of Honor recipients. Each uniform is accompanied by a one-page biography of the person who wore it.

The collection contains more than 1,600 uniforms from all branches and eras. The capitol building is open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Capitol's Visitor Services can be reached at 503-986-1388. More information about Salem's VFW can be found at vfw661.org

Elephant Man debuts at Pentacle

The Elephant Man opens April 13 at Salem's Pentacle Theatre and runs til May 5th. The play is based on the life of John Merrick, a London man with a rare skin and bone disease who lived near the end of the 19th century.

Abandoned as a child, Merrick finds his way into traveling sideshows. While he achieves success, he is denied his ultimate dream—to become a man like any other. Jo Dodge directs this rendition with assistance from Heathre Powell.

Tickets are $29 for opening night, which includes a catered post-show party; $24 for Wednesday and Thursday evening performances; $25 for Friday and Saturday evening performances; $27 for Sunday matinee performances. Seniors, students, and military are eligible for $1.50 discount per ticket; Oregon Trail Card holders are offered half-price tickets (see salemforall.org for more information). Tickets can be purchased online at pentacletheatre.org; in person at Pentacle's Salem ticket office, 145 Liberty Street NE; or by calling 503-485-4300 from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Tickets are also available day of performances 45 minutes before show at the theatre box office. For more information go to pentacletheatre.org
