"We made our own mess but were some how able to pull this one out. If you look at the numbers you wouldn't think we'd win this game. Finally, we had something go our way."

McNary drew nine walks in the game and recorded seven hits.

David Allen was 2-for-3 and scored a run.

Robert Benson made a diving catch in left field to start off the seventh. Rumbaugh got two more fly balls to the outfield to finish off the Olympians.

Carl Rumbaugh Senior at McNary High School

Carl Rumbaugh overcame six McNary errors to pitch a complete game against Sprague at home on Monday, April 23.

Rumbaugh struck out four Sprague hitters over seven innings to earn the victory.

"That shows his competitive spirit in those situations," said McNary head coach Larry Keeker of Rumbaugh's ability to pitch out of trouble. "He didn't look rattled."

four hits in the loss.

"They're a good team," Keeker said of Sprague. "They've got a solid senior class and a deep pitching staff."

After losing their first four Greater Valley Conference games, the Celtics have won three of four.

"The message from the coaching staff has simply been we are going to put our heads down and push forward,"

Keeker said. "We're just not going to allow anybody to feel sorry for themselves or quit. We just won't allow it."

We're not made up that way as coaches. We're just going to continue to battle and compete and try to help them through those difficult moments that we seem to run into quite often."
