

Dutcher leads McNary at state golf tournament

By DEREK WILEY
Of the Keizertimes

On the toughest course he's seen all season, McNary sophomore Joel Dutcher shot rounds of 79 and 83 on Monday and Tuesday at Emerald Valley Golf Club to finish 23rd overall at the 6A Boys Golf State Championships.

"I had a lot of fun," Dutcher said. "I learned a lot about that course. It's definitely one of the hardest courses I've played in my life so far."

Dutcher played his best golf on the front nine, shooting 2-over each day.

It was the back nine that gave him problems, shooting 5-over in round one and then 9-over in round two.

"The back nine is really challenging, really tight, and the greens sloped really hard," Dutcher said.

"Above the hole, you've got to be really careful going down because you can go off the green if you hit it hard enough. It's really fast."

The 14th hole was the most challenging. Dutcher double bogeyed it Monday and then tripled it on Tuesday.

"It's super long," Dutcher said. "The approach shot to the green is about 180, water to the right and you have a bunker to the left."

Dutcher finished his two rounds with four birdies and 19 pars.

"I'm pretty happy with how I played," Dutcher said. "There was a lot of 100s, a lot of 90s."

Sixteen golfers shot in the 90s on Monday and 20 on Tuesday.

Six golfers reached 100. McNary junior Matt Langenwalter shot 87 on Monday and 82 on Tuesday to finish tied for 42nd.

Playing in the girls tournament at Trysting Tree, McNary senior Hannah Elliott carded scores of 89 and 99.

Juralee Stover, a junior shot 100 and 95.

But Centennial scored two more runs in the top of the seventh on another error and Covalt grounded into a double play in the bottom of the inning, ending McNary's season.

"The good news is the kids kept battling and we gave it a shot," Keeker said. "We just couldn't stop them. They scored 15 runs. It's hard to win when you give the opponent 15 runs."

Alfaro was 3-for-4 with a RBI.

Covalt and Wentworth were both 2-for-4 with a RBI. Benson was 1-for-3 with three RBIs.

McNary finished the season 12-15.

"I'm proud of the seniors. We'll miss those guys," Keeker said. "Now we'll take a couple weeks off and on to summer ball and start to get ready for next year."

Gina Munguia and Natalia Gonzalez, who didn't begin playing together until the last match of the season, reached quarterfinals of the doubles bracket, where they lost to the eventual champions Avari Ridgway and Amy Gilliat of McMinnville 6-0, 6-0.

"They really have a lot of communication on the court and move well together," Osberg said of Munguia and Gonzalez.

"I think both of them had their best matches. They kept being patient and kept the ball in play and tried to force errors from their opponents and it worked out."

McNary senior Katherine Perez regrouped from losing in the first round to win four matches in a row, including a 5-7, 7-6, 6-0 victory over Hannah Leichy in the consolation finals.

In the boys tournament, McNary junior Alfredo Villarreal also rebounded after losing in the first round to reach the consolation finals, where he lost to Josiah Barks of Sprague 6-1, 6-1.

Villarreal shut out Rees Jones of South Salem 8-0 to get to the finals.

"In practice, I'm just trying to get better everyday," said Villarreal, who only began playing tennis last season. "I'm not just out here just to take up time. I'm trying to get better and put in effort every day and that's how I've got to the point I am right now. I think I still have a lot of potential and I still have a lot of room to improve so if I just keep working I'll be able to go even farther next year."

The 6A tennis state championships are May 17-19 at Babette Horenstein Tennis Center in Beaverton.

Childress, the No. 7 seed, has a bye in the first round and will get the winner of Olivia O'Halloran (Barlow) and Lucy Erickson (Sunset).
