

ATHLETE
of the Week

JONATHAN WILLIAMS

JONNY,

After scoring just four goals his first season, Williams scored 46 as a sophomore, including a game-winning goal in overtime to defeat rival Sprague.

"I still go back and watch that video to this day, especially when we're about to play them and I still think about it and hold it over their coach's head because I keep in touch with him," Williams said.

Williams scored 46 more goals as a junior and then led the league with 70 as a senior, including seven against Ridgeview, to finish his career with 166.

He was named First Team All-Conference and selected to the Oregon high school all-star game three years in a row.

"It's a bunch of kids from Portland and the Eugene area and then me," Williams said of the all-star game. "There's not a lot of kids from my area that make it to that kind of stuff. Playing with those kids it was basically a little glimpse of what I'm sure it will be like at the next level and it was a lot more fun for me to be able to, not that I don't trust the guys on my own team, but to know that a pass is going to be a little more perfect, I guess, at that level."

Western Oregon, a Division-II program, plays in the Men's Collegiate Lacrosse Association.

VOLCANO,

In the Tri-City sixth, Curry led off with a single to left. Justin Paulsen singled to center, moving Curry to second.

A wild pitch sent Curry to third and Paulsen to center. Catcher Genoves tried to pick Curry off, but his throw went wild, and Curry scored. The Dust Devils had a 3-2 lead.

Angel Acevedo relieved Tri-City starter Henry Henry (no, that's not a typo) to start the bottom of the sixth. Diego Rincones led off with a Texas League single to center, and Medrano walked.

Dylan Manwaring advanced the runners with a bunt down the first base line. Edie walked to load the bases.

Nico Giarratano scored Rincones with a sacrifice fly to right.

When the inning ended, the score was 3-3.

Sydney Duprey pitched the seventh and eighth innings, had two strikeouts, and ended up as the winning pitcher.

Carter Capps pitched the seventh and eighth for the Dust Devils and became the losing pitcher. In the seventh, McPherson led off with an infield single and was thrown out trying to steal second. Genoves struck out, but Trevor Abrams doubled to left and scored as Rincones hit a bloop single to left.

Andres Munoz pitched the eighth for Tri-City. Jesus Tona pitched the ninth and got a save. Hector Borg, manager of the Volcanoes, said the win came from "great pitching and a big hit by Rincon." He added that the pitching in the last three innings made the difference.

"We played as a good team together," the Venezuelan-born Rincones said through his interpreter manager.

"We did a great job as a team overall."

The attendance was 1,891, lower than usual for a Northwest League opening game, but it followed two losing Volcano seasons.

Two days before, the Volcanoes played a non-league game, winning 6-1 over the Walker-owned Gresham Gray Wolves of the West Coast League, a league for college-eligible student-athletes.
