Sand volleyball camp runs through July 12

The Keizer Rapids Sand Sharks were back on the sand volleyball courts at Keizer Rapids Park Thursday, June 21.

The sand volleyball camp runs through July 12 with meetings at the court every Tuesday and Thursday, except the week of Independence Day holiday.

While the camp is already under way, new players are welcome to drop in. Cost is $50 and scholarships are available for families needing assistance. New players and those in grades four through eight meet from 9 to 10 a.m. High school-age and experienced players meet from 10:15 to 11:30. Open play is available for all campers from 11:30 to noon.

Proceeds from the camp are reinvested in the sand courts. Organizer Hans Schneider said the club recently purchased new nets to the tune of $700.

This year, the camp drew about 40 players in the first week.

More information is available at the group's Facebook page.

States, Santos was determined to improve in 2017.

Santos was 2-0 with a 0.89 ERA over 30 innings when he was traded to the San Francisco Giants on July 26 as part of deal for major leaguer Eduardo Nunez.

Pitching for the Giants Dominican Republic affiliate, Santos continued to thrive, posting a 1.93 ERA in four starts.

At 18, Santos made his United States debut with the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes on Saturday, June 16, striking out two of the first three Tri-City batters.

"I was ready to go," said

Santos with Borg interpreting.

"I wasn't afraid as soon as I stepped on the mound."

After retiring the first six hitters, Santos allowed two runs in the top of the third inning on a walk, error and wild pitch.

He then allowed his first hit in the fourth and was pulled with no outs in the fifth after giving up a two-run homer.

Santos earned his first win on Thursday, June 21 at Boise. He allowed three hits, no runs and struck out five batters over five innings.

Santos improved to 2-0 on Tuesday, June 27, allowing three runs over six innings in a 10-5 win over Eugene.

Through three starts, Santos has struck out 14 batters in 15 innings and posted a 3.00 ERA.

"It's much different," Santos said of pitching in the United States.

"You play with fans in the stands. In the Dominican, only your family goes and watches the game, 10-15 people. It's better baseball with more experience and I'm enjoying it a lot."

With his fastball reaching 97 miles per hour and an improving curveball and changeup, Santos has climbed up to 13th in MLB's San Francisco Giants top prospect list.

"I'm more focused on being a big leaguer than being on the list," Santos said. "I'm not focused on the list. I'm focused on being the best player I can be."
