Tuesday, July 3

Volcanoes 5, Vancouver 4

A three-run first inning helped Salem-Keizer to a second win in the last game of a five-game road series.

A one-out error that put Kevin Rivera on first base started the rally. After another out, David Villar hit his second home run of the season for a two-run Volcano lead. Wander Franco followed with his first homer.

The Canadians scored a run in the first and one in the third. In the Volcano fourth, Chris Corbett singled, moved to second base on a wild pitch, went to third after Mikey Edie and Nico Giarratano walked, and scored on a sacrifice fly by Jose Layer.

Vancouver added a run in the fifth and one in the eighth to tie the score. In the ninth, Giarratano doubled and scored on a single by Layer.

Matt Frisbee was the winning pitcher in relief at 1-0. Marcus Reyes took the loss for an 0-1 record.

Thursday, July 5

Hillsboro 5, Volcanoes 4 (10 innings)

The first Volcanoes' game under the runner-on-second rule for extra-inning games evened the home series at 1-1.

Salem-Keizer took a 3-0 lead in the first inning. Jose Layer and Kyle McPherson singled. Layer reached second base after tagging on a foul pop fly scored on failed pickoff try. David Villar hit his third home run of the season.

After scoring once in the third, the Hops crossed the plate three times in the fifth on two doubles and a walk. The Volcanoes tied the score in the eighth. Diego Rincones singled, Chris Burks ran for him, and Joey Bart walked, moving Burks to second. Villar singled Burks home.

In the Hops' 10th, Ryan Dobson started on second, reached third on a single, and scored on a force out. Wander Franco started on second in the bottom of the 10th, and two of the three batters hit hard line drives, but they were caught.

Wesley Rodriguez was the winning pitcher in relief at 3-0. Closer Jesus Tona had his first loss against no wins but kept a spotless earned run average.

Friday, July 6

Hillsboro 6, Volcanoes 5

The Hops took the rubber game by scoring three first-inning runs and staying ahead the rest of the way.

Volcano starter Gregory Santos had an uncharacteristically rough first inning despite retiring the first two Hillsboro hitters. Jose Caballero and Andy Yerzy singled, and Francis Martinez doubled both of them home. A single by Keshawn Lynch scored Martinez.

Aaron Bond's home run with Ricardo Genoves on base in the third inning was Salem-Keizer's offensive highlight. The Volcanoes scored twice again in the ninth, but Hillsboro had scored a ninth-inning run.

pitcher with a 2-1 record. Trevor McKenna was the winning pitcher in relief at 1-0, and Josh Green had his first save.

Saturday, July 7

Boise 7, Volcanoes 4

A six-run second inning for the visiting Hawks doomed the Volcanoes in this opening game of a series.

Luke Morgan's double followed by Daniel Jipping's fourth home run of the season started the Boise rally. A double, two singles, a wild pitch, and a stolen base provided the next four runs.

In the Salem-Keizer fourth, three singles and a ground out gave the Volcanoes two runs. They added a run in the third with David Villar's fourth homer. In the bottom of the fifth, Diego Rincones scored on a single by Dalton Combs.

Boise's lead returned to three runs in the seventh with Morgan's second homer of the game.

Volcano starter Norwith Gudino took the loss, his record going to 3-2. Mike Bunal was the winning pitcher in relief, and PJ Poulin had his first save.

Sunday, July 8

Volcanoes 12, Boise 5

Four home runs and two shutout innings from closer Jesus Tona helped Salem-Keizer stop Boise's winning streak.

Although the Volcanoes led 3-0 after the first inning, when Wander Franco hit a two-run homer, the Hawks came back with a six-run second on a triple by Matt Hearn, four singles, a double steal, an error, and a wild pitch.

With two out in the second, Greg Jacknewitz relieved starter Keaton Winn, retired the side, and went on to become the winning pitcher with a 3-1 record. Keinter Olivares was the losing pitcher in relief at 1-1.

The Volcanoes went ahead by a run in the third. Joey Bart led off with his third home run, Chris Corbett doubled with Franco moving to third base, and Mikey Edie hit a three-run homer, his first. Salem-Keizer added two runs in the sixth as Jose Layer homered with Nico Giarratano on base, and three in the eighth on three hits.

Monday, July 9

Boise 7, Volcanoes 6

Another series loss went into the Volcanoes' record.

Salem-Keizer raised the home crowd's hopes in the fourth inning with a five run rally that overcame a 4-0 Boise lead.

The Hawks went ahead by a run in the seventh, and the Volcanoes evened the score in the eighth, but Boise scored the final run in the ninth.

In the Volcano fourth, Jose Layer led off with a single, Kyle McPherson walked, and a single by Diego Rincones loaded the bases. Joey Bart hit a grand slam.

David Villar then singled, went to second base on a ground out, and scored as Mikey Edie singled.

There was one more home run in the game, by Boise's Cole Anderson in the second.

Sidney Duprey was the losing pitcher in relief at 1-1 but came out of the game with a 0.90 earned run average. Bobby Johnson was the winning pitcher, also in relief, with a 2-0 record, and PJ Poulin had his second save.

The Volcanoes took Tuesday off before going to Everett for a five-game series.
