Wednesday, July 18

Volcanoes 6, Eugene 2

A strong start on the mound for Greg Jacknewitz and 11 hits from his teammates gave the Volcanoes the rubber game of this series and brought their season record to 17-16.

The first two Salem-Keizer runs came in the first inning when David Villar singled home Aaron Bond and Kyle McPherson. In the second, Nico Giarratano's first career home run, a solo shot, gave the Volcanoes all the runs they would need.

Eugene's runs came on a homer by Nelson Velasquez in the fourth and a double by Luis Vazquez in the fifth that scored Erick Gonzalez.

In the Volcano sixth, three runs came on singles by Ricardo Genoves and Bond and doubles by Chris Burks and McPherson.

Jacknewitz had eight strikeouts in his five innings and ran his record to 4-1, Riley Thompson, who started for the Emeralds, took the loss at 0-2.

Spokane 7, Volcanoes 5

Salem-Keizer led 1-0 after two innings, but then the visitors from Spokane took over.

The Indians scored once in the third, once in the fourth, and rallied for four runs in the fifth. The Volcanoes never caught up.

In the Spokane fifth, a double, two singles, a walk, a stolen base, and two sacrifice flies provided the four runs. The Volcanoes answered in that inning with Nico Giar-ratano's second home run of the season with Chris Corbett on base.

Spokane had one home run, Julio Pablo Martinez's fifth, in the seventh with the bases empty.

Hans Crouse was the starting and winning pitcher for the Indians at 3-1, and Cole Uvila had his second save. Norwith Gudino started and lost for the Volcanoes for a 3-4 record.

Friday, July 20

Spokane 5, Volcanoes 3

The Indians led all the way in this one, scoring a run in the first inning and three in the second before the Volcanoes crossed the plate.

Julio Pablo Martinez led the way in the second with a two-run home run. Salem-Keizer also had a homer, from Aaron Bond in the sixth with Nico Giarratano on base. Spokane out-hit the Volcanoes 11-5.

Seth Nordlin went eight innings for the Indians, getting his third win against one loss. Jake Wong, who started for the Volcanoes, was the losing pitcher with an 0-1 record.

Saturday, July 21

Volcanoes 11, Spokane 8

This was a comeback, and a wild one.

The Volcanoes overcame four errors, five wild pitches, and three passed balls, along with 11 Spokane hits to get their first win of this home series.

Salem-Keizer's biggest inning was the four run sixth. Dalton Combs doubled to drive in Chris Corbett and Ricardo Genoves. Kevin Rivera tripled Combs home and scored on an error.

The Volcanoes hit three home runs: Kevin McPherson's third, Corbett's first, and David Villar's fifth. Scott Kapers homered for the Indians.

Trent Toplikar was the winning pitcher in relief with a 1-0 record, and Ryan Walker got his first save. The losing pitcher was Reggie Meyer at 0-2.

Sunday, July 22

Volcanoes 6, Spokane 4

Salem-Keizer evened the series at two games apiece, this time having little more than Curtis Terry to overcome.

After the first inning, in which a home run was the first of Terry's four hits, the Volcanoes scored twice in the third. The Indians tied the score at 3-3 with a two-run third, but the Volcanoes had two runs in the sixth and were ahead for good.

Dalton Combs hit his second home run in the sixth with Chris Corbett on base. Spokane had one more homer, by Starling Joseph in the eighth with the bases empty.

Keenan Bartlett was the winning pitcher in relief at 1-2. JJ Santa Cruz, who joined the Volcanoes from the Augusta GreenJackets as Doug Curtis Terry to overcome.

his first save. The loss went to starter Scott Engler, whose record went to 2-2.

Tuesday, July 24
Volcanoes 4, Eugene 3
(10 innings)

The Volcanoes opened this series in Eugene with their fourth come-from-behind win in a row.

Salem-Keizer scored the first run of the game with Kyle McPherson's fourth home run of the season in the sixth inning. The Emeralds responded with two runs in the bottom of the sixth, and the Volcanoes tied the score in the eighth.

Nico Giarratano led off the eighth with a double, reached third on a wild pitch, and scored on a single by Jose Layer.

In the top of the 10th, David Villar bounced a double into the center field stands, driving in Giarratano and Layer. Nelson Velasquez started the bottom of the 10th at second base and eventually scored, but that was as far as Eugene got.

Matt Frisbee was the winning pitcher at 2-0 and Sean Barry the loser at 2-1.
