Manfred (Fred) Dieter Wolfgang Maass

June 2, 1939 – June 30, 2018

Fred was born in Berlin, Germany, to Irmgard (Irma) Maass and Hans Zeidler. Due to World War II, his father died before his parents could get married. His mother emigrated to Astoria, Oregon, where she married Alfred D. Berthelsen. Fred was raised by his mother's family in Berlin, until he was reunited, at age 18, with his mother in Astoria.

Fred saw that he had an opportunity to create a good life in America. He volunteered for the U.S. Army, to show good intent toward becoming a citizen of the U.S.A. He was sent to Germany.

Eventually he visited his childhood girlfriend, Helga, and they were married on December 30, 1960, in Nuremberg, Germany, where he was serving during the Berlin Crisis. In the beginning of 1962, Fred was honorably discharged in New York. It became a race, to see who would become a citizen first, Fred or his first child. Fred won, and two days later Michael was born. They had two more children, Monica and Marcus.

Fred worked in Astoria before he was hired in November, 1964, as Correctional Officer at the Oregon State Penitentiary. This job turned into a great career. Working through all the tiers, he retired in 1994, as Superintendent of the Oregon State Penitentiary.

He and the family enjoyed the outdoors, camping, boating, hunting. The family also loved to travel. Granddaughters Valerie, Stephanie and Danielle loved traveling with their grandparents. Fred and Helga wanted to instill in them that all people are alike. They want the same things for their families: A roof over their heads, food in their bellies and, if they were lucky, an education. While Fred worked full time, he managed to take enough classes near where ever he worked to earn his master's degree.

He was so proud to see his children and also granddaughters get their bachelorsdegrees.

Fred was laid to rest at Willamette National Cemetery with help from the U.S. Military Honor Guard, the Oregon State Penitentiary Honor Guard and Chaplain Harold, from Brighton Hospice. Thank you for your touching service.

We are also thankful to the Brighton Hospice Team and Amber, our care person, for trying to make Fred's days easier. We will miss Fred, but are glad he is no longer hurting. I am thankful for our 63 years of friendship, during which we were married for 57 1/2 years.

In loving memory, your family and best friend, Helga.

Fred Maass

Keizer businesses collecting school supplies in August

The sixth Annual Salem-Keizer Education Foundation School Supply Drive kicked off Aug. 1. The effort takes pressure off of local teachers who often buy supplies from their own pockets.

The top items requested by teachers include: baby wipes, colored pencils, composition notebooks, crayons, dry erase pens, erasers, facial tissue, folders, glue sticks, graph paper, index cards, markers, notebook paper, rubber bands, scissors, Sharpie markers, spiral notebooks, staplers, staples and tape.

There are donation boxes in Keizer at: Chipotle, Courthouse Fitness, First Tech Federal Credit Union, Kaiser Permanente, Key Bank, Keizertimes, Oregon State Credit Union, Starbucks, Salem Health, Town & Country Lanes, Willamette Valley Bank and WVP Health.

Dolores Rose Sheehan

December 26, 1932 — July 22, 2018

Dolores Rose Sheehan (nee Maciak) was born on Dec. 26, 1932 in Lowell, Mass., the third of seven children born to Polish immigrants Sophia and Antony Maciak. She died July 22, 2018 in Eugene, Ore., surrounded by loved ones.

She was raised and educated in the Lowell area. She obtained her nursing education through a scholarship provided by the Lowell Sun Newspaper, receiving her license in 1953.

She met the love of her life through a patient she tended to working at the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital.

She wed Gerald Anthony Sheehan, Sr. on July 2, 1954. It was a small ceremony that proved mighty; as Gerald, Sr. and "Doll", as Dad called her, celebrated marital bliss that lasted 50 years until Dad passed in 2005.

They resided in South Braintree, Mass., before moving to the Salem-Keizer area in 1962; a pregnant Dolores with four youngsters in tow. What a horrible sight to arrive to: downed trees, power outages and debris left everywhere in the wake of the infamous "Columbus Day Storm". Dad always promised Doll he would take her back to Massachusetts, if she didn't like Oregon. She didn't, but they stayed anyway.

After the move in 1962 she obtained employment at the Salem General Hospital. After the General and Memorial hospitals merged, she transferred to the main Salem Hospital campus as a nursing administrator until retiring in 1992 after 26 years of service.

Dolores felt her accomplishments included: being a long time communicant of St. Edward Catholic Church in Keizer, Ore.; a volunteer at St. Jude Food Bank of St. Vincent de Paul (where she worked alongside Gerald, Sr.); a long time participant in a Cancer Research and Women's program.

She enjoyed singing (and had a beautiful voice), bingo, Reno trips and visiting family and friends in Massachusetts and Florida. She was an avid Bunco player for over 20 years.

Dolores is survived by eldest son, Gerald, Jr. (aka Jerry) of Kodiak, Ark.; daughter Susan of Springfield, Ore.; youngest son John of Las Vegas, Nev.; sisters Laura LeRiche of Pelham, NH; Blanche Maciak of Lowell, Mass.; and Elaine Maciak of Westford, Mass.; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Sophia and Antony Maciak; brother Anthony Maciak; sisters Eleanor Maciak and Irene Desrosiers; her husband and best friend, Gerald Sheehan, Sr.; daughter Theresa Mills; and two infants, Anne Marie and Matthew.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the St. Vincent's de Paul Society food bank on Portland Road in Salem.

Graveside committal will be Thursday, Aug. 2, 2018, 10:30 am at Restlawn Memory Gardens and Funeral Home, 201 Oak Grove Rd. NW, in Salem, Ore. Memorial services TBD. Arrangements are by Restlawn Funeral Home.
