

Volcanoes shine in all-star game

By HERB SWETT

The Pioneer League all-stars, at the rookie level one notch below the Northwest League, beat the NWL all-stars 13-10 Tuesday in Grand Junction, Colorado.

All four Salem-Keizer Volcanoes who played in this game, in which the lead changed hands five times, performed well. Joey Bart hit a three-run home run in the first inning.

Diego Rincones hit two doubles and two singles and threw out a runner at home, and Gregory Santos and Jesus Tona each faced two batters without allowing a baserunner.

In the five-run top of the first, Diosbel Arias of the Spokane Indians doubled, Andy Yerzy of the Hillsboro Hops singled, and Bart hit his homer. Rincones doubles, reached third base on a ground out, and scored as Olivier Basabe of the Tri-City Dust Devils grounded out.

The Pioneer League scored twice in the first. Nathan Eaton of the Idaho Falls Chukars, whose five hits led all the players, singled, and Coco Montes of the Grand Junction Rockies, who had the other two homers of the game, hit his first.

Trailing 6-4 going into the bottom of the fourth, the Pioneer League scored three times to take the lead. All the runs came on Montes's second homer.

In the top of the fifth, Rincones doubled, went to third on a sacrifice fly, and scored on a wild pitch. The NWL was ahead by a run, but the Pioneer League came back with two runs in the same inning.

The NWL got back on top in the top of the sixth with two runs, neither involving a Volcano. The remaining four runs of the game came in the Pioneer League eighth, on a Texas League double, two singles, and two errors by pitcher

Emmanuel Clase of the Spokane Indians.

Santos retired his two batters in the bottom of the sixth. Tona did the same in the eighth, ending the inning.

Deyni Olivero of the Missoula Osprey, the next to last pitcher for the Pioneer League, was the winning pitcher. Sean Barry of the Eugene Emeralds, the 10th of 12 NWL pitchers, took the loss.

The NW Bullets won the program's first PGF Championship on Saturday, Aug. 4 in California.

Ebbs was 2-for-3 with a triple in the final game.

"This is one of my dreams and my goals and I accomplished my goal and my dream came true," Ebbs said. "We really showed ourselves and how we play as a team and we showed how well we can do and our potential. We're just really proud of each and every person on that team for stepping in and doing their job."

After three pool play games, the double elimination tournament started with 66 teams on Tuesday, July 31. The Bullets shut out their first two opponents 5-0 and 8-0 on Tuesday but had to come from behind on Wednesday to stay in the winner's bracket. Trailing 5-4, the Bullets scored three runs in the top of the seventh to defeat Acers Express 7-5.

The Bullets then topped Salenas Storm 2-0 on Thursday.

Ebbs made a catch in deep center field for the first out in the bottom of the seventh.

"I didn't think I was going to catch that ball," Ebbs said. "It was behind me and it was in the right field gap. It was about five feet from the fence and we were playing pretty far in so I kind of snow coned it."

The Bullets led from start to finish to defeat the Arizona Athletics 6-3 on Friday morning to advance to the semifinals.

Ebbs was 3-for-4 with a run and RBI in the victory.

Playing the winner of the loser's bracket, the undefeated Bullets had two chances to beat Universal Fastpitch to advance to the finals. And the Bullets played like it, falling behind 9-2 after two innings.

"I think we were just tired," Ebbs said. "Once we realized what was at stake, we got back in it and played our game."

The Bullets answered with four runs in the third, three in the fourth and one each in the fifth and sixth to come from behind for an 11-9 win.

"We realized that the pressure wasn't on us," Ebbs said. "We have a lot of fight and I think that our fight just kicked in and helped us out."

The Bullets, coached by Kayla Rice, have girls from Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Ebbs has played for the Bullets for five years and in the PGF tournament for the past three summers. The 2018 14U squad is the first Bullets team to win the championship.
