Called to ServeFest

Church goes all out to help neighbors

Members of Lakepoint Community Church and community partners took over the campus of Claggett Creek Middle School Saturday, Aug. 4, for their annual ServeFest.

The event hosts a wide range of free services from haircuts to manicures and pet grooming to playing online video games courtesy of Satellite Gaming.

A: Alexa Muchmore paints the face of a guest.
 B: Annabelle Zayas gets a manicure from a volunteer.
 C: CeCe Wayne of Paws Mobile Grooming ties a handkerchief around the neck of Smore while owner Fernando Jimenez holds him.
 D: Miguel Hernandez brushes off Connor Reyes after a haircut.
 E: Volunteer Ann Reilly hands a snow cone to Lewis Williams.

"This community is beautiful and the whole staff is so attentive and caring! As a family member, I always want the very best for my Mom and I know that we have found an incredible place where I know that she is happy and well-cared for. The atmosphere is engaging and respectful and it is so good to know that Mom is in such good hands. I would highly recommend this community to anyone!" — HEIDI C.
