

CHANGER: 'It's going to be a different game'

Back healthy, Haselip showed what she's capable of in McNary's first game of the 2018 season.

Trailing 1-0 in the second half at South Medford, Haselip tied the game with a header and then snuck behind the Panthers defense to score the game-winning goal.

"The injury played as much of a mental toll and a fitness toll as anything last year and even though we got her back and she did produce, she just never caught up," Nash said. "This year to see her get out there and get confidence early. It opens up so much for this team. I'm really proud of her."

Haselip believes McNary can make a playoff run this season, similar to Silverton's in 2016.

"I really feel like we can go farther in the playoffs this year," she said. "I feel like we're just a different team from last year. It's our atmosphere and our confidence. I feel like we kind of lacked that last year and we have a lot more captains and a lot more leaders on the field. I'm really excited about it and how well we play together now. It's exciting."

As for Summit, who McNary hosts on Saturday, Sept.

Izzy Haselip charges upfield in a game with South Medford High School.

29 at noon:

"I've talked to (my teammates) about how big they are and how aggressive they are and how dominant they are when they have the ball and how well they shoot from the outside," Haselip said. "It's going to be a different game."

"I feel like we're becoming way more dominant and confident in ourselves that we can compete with them this year. I think they're so used to being dominant in 5A that they're going to be surprised when they play 6A teams." Haselip would know.

McNary Boys Varsity Soccer vs. Westview

The Celtics dominated the game against the current state champs from the start to the end and created multiple opportunities to score a goal by Luis Lopez, Eddy Martinez, Jack Baez, Francisco Rios, Jose Zamudio and Alex Salazar. Unfortunately for the McNary squad, it missed its chances while Westview goalkeeper Jorge Barajas put in a big effort with eight saves. In the 25 minute, the Celtics scored on a combination of passes between Eddy Martinez and Luis Lopez, that ended with a cross ball from Eddy Martinez to Jovanie Bravo that strike the ball with his left to far left corner of the net. At 53 minutes, a crossed ball to Westview's Kevin Vidal tied the game for Westview. The Celtics keep pushing forward creating opportunities to score but they couldn't get the final touch near the net to score the second goal.

MEDFORD,

McNary in week two as the Celtics travel to West Linn on Friday, Sept. 7.

"We'd like to fix our toughness issues at the moment," Auvinen said. "They (North Medford) just out-toughed us. We're working on running our feet through contact, both offensively and defensively. We'll work on every aspect because none of the three aspects were very good tonight. We didn't play well defensively obviously but we didn't play well offensively and our special teams weren't very good. That just comes down to them playing a heck of a lot harder than we did."
