Lady Celts end preseason 2-5

Sometimes a soccer goal looks as large as the ocean but other times as small as the eye of a needle.

Unfortunately for the McNary (2-5) girls soccer team, it's been the latter, as the Lady Celts fell to Lake Oswego 2-0 on Thursday, Sept. 13. The shutout was the fourth in a row for McNary, which last scored a goal on Aug. 30 against Forest Grove.

"A lot of it has to do with the teams we're playing and then a portion of it has to do with just confidence with the ball at our feet," McNary head coach A.J. Nash said.

The Lady Celts played Lake Oswego without last season's leading scorer, as Abbie Hawley suffered a concussion in a 3-0 loss at Sheldon on Tuesday. McNary is also missing starting central defender Samantha Alfano.

"When you lose a key player it forces you to play differently and confidence is the biggest thing that's lost,"

Nash said.

"Right now the best thing that I can take from today is that we had our confidence back with Gina (Munguia) in the sweeper position, which is why we had more attacking opportunities than we've seen in the past two games. We played another great squad from Portland and put up a good fight without our top defender and our top goal scorer."

The Lady Celts did find a new formation, switching to a 4-5-1 to attack more through the midfield than through their forwards.

"It provides a little bit more security for the defense," Nash said. "It has the appearance that we're being more defensive but we're just able to attack a little bit more dangerously because any number of five players can attack through the midfield."

Lake Oswego scored its first goal late in the first half and then added a penalty kick midway through the second after McNary was called for a push in the box.

"It was an extremely large shift from the officiating we've got in the first five games," Nash said. "Our team just didn't adjust to the calling."

McNary opens Mountain Valley Conference play at West Salem on Tuesday, Sept. 25.

McNary volleyball earned its first Mountain Valley Conference win on Monday, Sept. 17, sweeping South Salem 3-0 at home.

"We just fought really hard today and it was a good win," McNary junior Zoie Warner. "We definitely fault really hard for this. Our energy was really high tonight."

After winning the first game 25-18, the Lady Celts fell behind late in the second before rallying to go on a 7-0 run to win 25-23 and take a 2-0 lead.

"They gathered themselves back together and went back to our game plan," McNary head coach Crystal DeMello said.

"You can't ask for more than that when they stay disciplined and technique comes back into play. It really is coming through and staying disciplined the entire time. The girls are getting better and better."

McNary was led by its serving against South Salem.

"The strongest thing was offensively the girls executed what we wanted to with serving, which was able to put us in the right spots for offensive movement," DeMello said.

McNary's next home match is Thursday, Sept. 27 at 6:30 p.m. against Bend.

FIRE, continued from Page B1

With starting goalkeeper Sebastian Lopez dealing with a hamstring injury, Alejandro Villarreal came off the bench to allow just one goal in a 2-1 win over Madison on Sept. 13 and shut out Gresham.

"It's my job as a sub to just fill in his shoes and keep the team with a clean sheet and do my best to just keep the ball out of the net," said Villarreal, who had seven saves against Gresham.

"It's just focus but I have the support of my team. I support them and they support me and we just keep each other going. It's whatever I can do to help this team win."

Camarena expects Lopez as well as senior midfielder Jovanie Bravo, who missed the Gresham match with a knee injury, back for West Salem.

"The kids are playing well," Camarena said.

"We can compete against anyone."
