

Funder nets $13K for holiday giving baskets

The Keizer Network of Women (KNOW) held its major fund raiser—Percy Presents—at the Keizer Civic Center on Thursday, Sept. 20. More than $13,000 was netted for KNOW's primary project, the Giving Basket Program that delivers a holiday meal and toys for families in need just before Christmas.

This year over 200 families in need will benefit from the program. The families are chosen with the assistance of the Salem-Keizer School District.

This year's Percy Presents was themed Kentucky Derby! Nearly 200 women attended, most in their own iteration of a Derby hat.

Attendees dined on a buffet dinner catered by K's Catering. Before dinner they bid on more than 50 silent auction items. Mystery wine in a bag were also sold during the event. Remodeling by Classic Homes, based in Keizer, donated $3,500 for raffle items.

Races with stick horses added to the fun as the evening was emceed by former Chamber president Nathan Bauer.
