Copeland leads 3-0 Whiteaker over Straub

ATHLETE of the Week

BRAIDEN COPELAND

KEIZERTIMES/Derek Wiley
Braiden Copeland ran for 239 yards and three touchdowns against Straub on Wednesday, Sept. 26.

Braiden Copeland ran for 239 yards and three TDs to go along with eight tackles, two sacks and an interception to lead Whiteaker (3-0) to a 20-14 win over Straub on Wednesday, Sept. 26.

Straub scored late in the second quarter to tie the game at 6-6, and a great kick-off pinned the Wolverines on their own 10 yard line, but the Wolverines wasted no time retaking the lead.

Copeland completed a pass to Ty Borde to the 20, and on the ensuing play Copeland ran through a big hole and evaded six tacklers to go 80 yards for the score.

A short third quarter TD run by Copeland extended the lead to 20-6.

A long TD run by Straub quarterback Jimmy Lathen drew Straub to within six points, but Whiteaker's run game allowed the Wolverines to control the ball and run out the clock.

Offensive coordinator Marcus Larimer seemed to always have the right play called, allowing Whiteaker to dominate time of possession and keep Straub's dangerous play-makers off the field.

"Braiden played like a big man tonight," said Whiteaker head coach Tom Larimer, "And he put up huge numbers. His effort was exemplary. But I reminded the kids that he and Hunter (Ruberto, who ran for 73 yards on 14 carries) had so much success not only because of how hard they ran, but because of how hard the O line played in front of them.

Those kids (Jacob Hurst, Dominic Hughes, Cristian Garcia, Joey Lenhart, Will Green and Angel Munguia) deserve every bit as much credit as the kids who get the stats. And our D line was just as good."

Whiteaker's lines are very well coached under the tutelage of Jason Walling (D line) and Zachary Drake (O line).

Larimer says the defense is coming together under defensive coordinator Luke Atwood.

"Straub has dangerous play-makers, and Coach Atwood put together a great plan to limit those kids. Copeland, Munguia, Damon (Thorn-ton), Hunter (Ruberto) and Kyler (Donahue) all made big plays that show up in the stats, but Brody (Roth), Logan (Bowlby) and Ty (Borde) had important containment jobs that show up in the box score only where it matters most—the final score. It's always fun to win, but it's especially satisfying when so many kids contribute."

Claggett wins big

Jabal Balos ran for four touchdowns as Claggett Creek (2-0) throttled Houck 42-6 last Wednesday.

Evynd Mendenhall also ran for a touchdown and Graeson Williams returned the second half kickoff back for a touchdown.

Middle School, credited the SOVAH Track Club, run by Jon Terrazas, for improving their mechanics.

"I feel like I'm getting less sore," Brennan said. "Last year I felt like everything was hurting and this year I'm not hurting."

Brennan and Ethan have also learned how to kick at the end of races.

"I never kicked in my races because I was too tired," Brennan said. "If I hadn't (kicked), I wouldn't have gotten under 18 (minutes)."

The brothers also push each other.

"He starts out a little quicker than I do but by the first mile I can see him and I just try to keep with him," Brennan said of Ethan. "If he starts slowing down I'll obviously go faster but that hasn't happened this season. The goal is to beat him but that's going to be hard."

Ethan backed up his 17:50 by finishing the Nike Portland XC in 17:55.

"Those are two guys that show up everyday to get better," McNary head coach David Holcomb said. "Whether their body is not feeling good or it's their best day, they show up and push each other and push the other varsity guys. I think from two sophomores that's really exciting."

McNary senior David Allen was the second Celtic to cross the finish line at the Nike Portland XC, finishing in 18:03. Sophomores Andrew Goemaere and Gavin Gasperini were next in 18:28 and 18:30.

Francisco Orta finished in 18:33 and Brennan Whalen clocked in at 18:55. Caleb McCoy was right behind him in 19 minutes.

Sabella Alfaro led McNary's girls, finishing with a PR of 22:43.

Cielo Hermenejildo Chavez clocked in at 22:55 and Reyna Terrazas finished in 23:22.
