intentionally for a playoff run and now we have to do the work in conference to get ready for the playoffs.”

McNary scored quickly at South Salem as Abbie Hawley headed in a free kick from Gina Munguia in the third minute.

“Before the game we were actually practicing our set pieces about where she (Munguia) had the ball,” Hawley said. “I just gave her that look and she sent it right to my head. It was really awesome just because it was so early in the game and I think having that adrenaline in the beginning pushed us into getting this win tonight.”

Hawley assisted McNary's second goal, tapping the ball to Audrey Williams, who put it in the corner of the net to give the Lady Celts a 2-0 lead with 15 minutes remaining in the first half.

“Abbie had a great ball,” Williams said. “I felt like that was a great opportunity so I just went for it. I couldn't have gotten that goal without Abbie.”

South Salem scored its only goal with 4:45 remaining in the first half.

McNary senior Gina Munguia assisted the Lady Celts first goal at South Salem Tuesday.

Snapp and the McNary defense shut out the Saxons in the second half.

“It opened our eyes a little bit,” Hawley said of breaking the losing streak. “We were kind of down on ourselves with that really big dry spell and so I think it's going to help us push ourselves in pracrice and then get us ready for McKay on Friday.”

The Lady Celts are 1-2 in the Mountain Valley Conference after opening with one-goal losses to West Salem and Summit, both 3-0 in league play.

McNary hosts McKay (0-3) on Friday at 4 p.m.

HOPE,

“I'm going to keep trying something until it works,” Auvinen said. “I'm not ever going to give up. I may be one of the most stubborn people on the planet. And I'm old. There's different ways you can do things and I'm going to keep trying. I think we took a step forward this week and we're going to do some of the things we did last week and continue those because I think they may have helped, keep looking for new things and make adjustments and hopefully take the battle for four quarters.”

Barker completed 15 of 27 passes for 127 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Junior Walling rushed for 81 yards on 18 carries.
