ATHLETE of the Week

presented by

ERIK BARKER
McNary High School

Barker scored three touchdowns in a 21-14 win over Sprague.

ATWOOD, continued from Page B1

Atwood then followed Smythe to Lakeridge in 2009.

After one more season at McNary as the head JV coach, Atwood quit coaching not long after his daughter was born six years ago.

Hearing Whiteaker, where Atwood once played, needed an assistant, he called head coach Thomas Larimer.

Larimer had heard all about Atwood's playing days at McNary.

"He was the kid that could play any position and be the best player on the field," Larimer said.

Atwood, who serves as Whiteaker's defensive coordinator, is just as good a coach. "Every week I feel like I'm going to school," Larimer said. "He's so much better a coach than I am."

Atwood enjoys being back on the field, coaching a group of players that includes his nephew.

"I didn't realize until a little bit ago that I only see them in their pads because I don't work at the school and I saw a kid out of his pads and it really makes you realize that they're kids," Atwood said. "When they're in their pads they're bigger than me and they hit and they run but when you see them out of their pads it gives you a bigger heart for them for sure. You realize how influential you can be for them. It's a real positive experience witnessing how I can be positive for them and teach them, keep them safe out there with what I know."
