One of the first crops the family began growing back in the 1800s was peaches. Over the years peaches and apples have remained a large part of their foundation but over time we have expanded and began growing many other varieties of produce.

Jones Farm Produce has its own ice cream shop that is guaranteed to please any sweet tooth.

They feature 16 flavors of Umpqua ice cream and frozen yogurt. The ice cream shop is also open 7 days a week May through October.
