Retired pastor Neil Allen shows off a single piece of his vast Nativity collection, which spans five continents.

Nativities on display

On Sunday, Dec. 2, retired pastor Neil Allen is bringing a portion of his Nativity collection to Keizer Christian Church between 11 a.m. and noon. Allen has been collecting Nativities from all over the world and five of the seven continents. His epic collection includes pieces made from wood, coal, metals, porcelain and even newspapers. Allen will give a presentation on history, art forms, and cultural influences. Anyone is welcome to attend and ask questions during the presentation. The artists' reception will be held Saturday, Dec. 1 from 2 to 4 p.m. Awards will be presented at the reception. Artists who are exhibiting works are encouraged to attend to visit and talk with attendees. The show runs through December 29.

New show at KAA

The Keizer Art Association has made a last-minute change to its December show. Artist who prepped pieces for the Fire & Ice Show will be featured alongside an open show of local artistry. The artists' reception will be held Saturday, Dec. 1 from 2 to 4 p.m. Awards will be presented at the reception. Artists who are exhibiting works are encouraged to attend to visit and talk with attendees. The show runs through December 29.

Paper's ad creators win 18 awards

The Keizertimes won 18 awards—including five first place nods—at the Oregon Newspaper Publisher Association's annual AdCon advertising conference held in late October. Judged by members of the Pennsylvania Press Association, the Keizertimes also won six second place honors and seven third place honors. The awards recognize achievement in various categories for print and internet advertising. The five first place awards were advertisements created by the Keizertimes for Emerald Pointe Retirement (best image ad); ABB Stoves (best use of black and one color); Foster Farms (best private party ad), The Springs at Sunnyview (best online animated ad); and the Keizertimes (best house ad). Second place honors were awarded for Huggins Insurance (best black and white ad), Boucher Jewelers (best image ad), Willamette Valley Appliance (best merchandising ad), Keizer Rotary Amphitheatre Summer Concerts (best series), Boucher Jewelers (best use of black and one color) and Home Fire Stove (best use of small ad space). Recognized in third place: Willamette Valley Appliance (best advertising headline), Creekside Veterinary Clinic (best image ad), Home Fire
