B Christmas tree lighting

The Keizer community gathered on Tuesday, Dec. 4, to light the city's Christmas tree at Walery Plaza on River Road and Cherry Avenue.

Hundreds of kids and their families enjoyed hot cider while waiting for Santa Claus to arrive courtesy of the Keizer Fire District.

Five-year old Aurora Van Dyke and 13-year old Trinity Lehnertz were chosen in a drawing to help Santa flip the switch to turn on the tree's hundreds of multi-colored lights.

A—Santa Claus got help switching the lights on from Aurora Van Dyke, age 5, and Trinity Lehnertz, age 13.

B—Sofia Zielinski, a senior at McNary High School, won the contest to design the 2018 holiday card for Keizer.

C—Keizer Community Band helped entertain the hundreds of attendees.

A Dinner's served

The November Keizer Community Dinner was held on Wednesday, Nov. 28, St. Edward Catholic Church.

Students from The Oregon School for the Deaf served up a turkey dinner and pumpkin pie. Members of the Whiteaker Middle School leadership team served as waiters.

More than 300 people attended over the two hour event. The next community dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 27.
