Divine Distillers
2673 12th St SE • Salem • 971-328-0717 • DivineDistillers.com

Wine and beer enthusiasts will find plenty of vinters and brewers with in a 50 miles radius of Keizer. What's not so plentiful are spirit distilleries—which makes Divine Distillers on Hyacinth Street a rarity.

Divine Distillers, opened by Jason Greenwood and Jennell Ives in the summer of 2018, is a craft distillery that uses local fruits to create amazing spirits. Each bottle is made with the goal of preserving and highlighting local flavors.

"We seek to adapt the European distilling traditions with innovation creating spirits that capture the essence of the Willamette Valley," said owner Jason Greenwood.

The primary products of the distillery are eau-de-vie (water of life) fiery spirits made with pear, apple or blueberry; brandy and, rum. Jason says one of the signature products of Divine Distillers is their Agave Spirit (tequila) which was voted the smoothest out of more than 500 entries at the San Antonio Veterans Spirit Competition.

"We are ... focused on building community through partnerships and quality products," added Jason. "We are committed to the community. This is our home and we want to create a quality business that characterizes the best of our local resources."

Divine Distillers is located a 2195 Hyacinth St. NE, #148, in Salem, between Salem Parkway and Portland Road. The phone number is 971-328-0717. To learn more visit them at divinedistillers.com.
