Dorothy Ann Lamer

June 4, 1927 - February 28, 2019

Dorothy was born June 4, 1927, in Prairie City, Oregon to James R. and Geneva Ann (Campbell) Cook and passed away on February 28, 2019, in Salem. She graduated from high school in Scio as Valedictorian of her class in 1945.

D. Lamer

Dorothy married Allen Lamer August 16, 1946, when he returned from the war. They were married for 65 years before Al's death in 2011. They lived 62 of those years in Keizer. Together they owned and operated Al's Radio and TV for 37 years. Dorothy and Al were proud of their Keizer heritage and contributed and participated in many of community activities.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her sister, Roberta Gray; she is survived by two children, Kay (Bill) and Paul (Gerlinde); five grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren. In retirement, Dorothy enjoyed gardening and many international trips. She meticulously documented each adventure with great enthusiasm.

A memorial service will be at Keizer Funeral Chapel on Sunday, March 17 at 1 p.m.

Donations can be made to Keizer Heritage Foundation, PO Box 20845, Keizer, OR 97307.

Norman Beugli, 92, died Wednesday, Feb. 6, 2019, in Keizer.

Norman was born May 20, 1926, in Molalla, Ore., and moved to Salem in 1930. He started school at Washington Elementary (Old East School) in 1932. He moved to Liberal and Yoder, Ore., in 1934, and returned to Salem in 1936, where he lived until building a home in Keizer in 1986.

He graduated from Salem High School in 1944, served in the Navy during World War II, and attended Oregon State University. He worked a number of years for Elfstrom & Eyre of Salem, installing acoustical ceiling tiles. He married Grace Mulligan in 1952, and she died in 1980. He married Lorraine Davenport-Schjoll in 1981. He enjoyed crossword puzzles, golf, entering sweepstakes and traveling the world. He belonged to the Elks Lodge #2210 in Silverton, and was a life member; and the Carpenters Local #1065. He also volunteered for the American Red Cross for a number of years.

Survivors include his wife, Lorraine, son Harvey and his wife Patti; son Roger and his wife Jennifer of Salem; stepson Steve Schjoll and his wife Toni of Eugene; four grandchildren, Tyler and Nash Beugli, Heather Beugli and Kristen McMurtry; and two great grandsons, Charlie and Finn McMurtry.

A celebration of Life was held Saturday, March 2, 2019, at Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service in Salem. In lieu of flowers, please donate to Friends of Felines, Turtle Ridge Wildlife Center in Salem, or Signature Hospice.

Chemeketa picks new president

The Chemeketa Community College Board of Education announced that Dr. Jessica Howard will become the school's next president/CEO.

Dr. Howard will assume the position on July 8 following the retirement of President Julie Huckestein, who took on the job in 2015.

Howard is currently the South East Campus president of Portland Community College, and previously served as the vice president of academic affairs at San Antonio College in San Antonio, Tx.

Howard earned a doctorate of philosophy in performance studies at New York University; a master's and bachelor of music in music theory and bachelor of arts in English from Rice University in Houston; and an associate of arts from San Antonio College in San Antonio.

Dr. Jessica Howard

Board Chair Neva Hutchinson said, "Her proven leadership and personal dedication to student success, access and inclusion for all students, makes her (Dr. Howard) a perfect match for Chemeketa."
