

TENNIS,

After splitting the first two sets, McNary's Kennedy Buss and Audrey Williams lost a 13-11 tiebreaker in the third set.

But McNary's #4 team of Ahlyn Lyda and McKenzie Proctor was able to salvage McNary's second win of the match, rallying to win the final two sets (6-4, 6-3) after dropping the first set.

It was the first ever tennis match for both players.

"Having played just a couple of weeks and just being able to keep score and know where to position themselves was impressive, but getting a win was incredible," Smith said. "Their communication and attitude played a big role in their win, as did their ability to get to the ball and just get it back in order to put pressure on the other team."

McNary's Lexy McKay continues a long rally with her opponent.

regained the lead at 4-2.

"Every kid on this team can get up there and put the ball in play," McNary head coach Kevin Wise said. "That's a good feeling as a coach, to know that it doesn't matter who's up. They're going to hit the ball."

"Our young kids aren't intimidated."

Sunset got a run back in the top of the sixth when Mikaela Byrnes hit a solo homer to center field to begin the frame.

With it being a one-run ballgame, Danner was forced to buckle down to get the final six outs.

Both the tying and go-ahead runs reached base in the sixth and seventh innings, but Danner found a way to get herself out of trouble in both instances to seal the win for the Celtics.

"Faith is a pitcher that doesn't show emotion, which is a great thing," Wise said. "No matter what, she comes back and does what she needs to do on the next pitch."

Hawley honored

Earlier this month, McNary senior Abigail Hawley was named to the Statesman Journal All-Mid-Valley girls basketball team.

Hawley averaged 13.3 points per game this season, as well as 2.7 rebounds per game, and was named first-team all-Mountain Valley Conference.

Hawley has received all-conference honors in each of the last three seasons.

Abigail Hawley (21) led the Celtics in scoring this season.
