

Reunited

Author and McNary High School alum Cara Meredith (center) reunited with some of her former Keizer teachers at a reading in McMinnville last week. Teachers Steve Sanchez, Don Watson, Carl Christman and Joanne Sandhu all reunited with the former student to celebrate the release of her first book, The Color of Life.

Register now for Monster Cookie ride

The Salem Bicycle Club will stage its Monster Cookie Metric Century Bicycle Ride to kick-off the cycling season on Sunday, April 28.

This will be the 43rd year of the ride, and has been ranked as the third best supported ride in Oregon by the Oregonian and OR Bike.

The ride starts at State Capitol Mall Park in Salem and takes riders over the scenic back roads to the historic Champoeg State Park and back to Salem passing Willamette Mission State Park. There will be an optional 34 mile short route to the first rest stop and back to the Capitol Mall.

Pre-registration is $30 before Monday, April 22 and an optional $7.50 lunch and an $18 t-shirt will be available. You can pre-register at salem-bicycleclub.org. Day-of-ride registration will be $40 and registration times are between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

All riders must wear a helmet that meets CPSC requirements and at the end of the race riders will be rewarded with a delicious monster cookie.

For more information, visit salembicycleclub.org or call Hersch Sangster at 503-390-8024.

Soggy Day in the Park set for April 20 a KRP

The Clagget Creek Watershed Council, a group dedicated to promoting water quality and wildlife habitat in the Claggett Creek watershed, will host its Soggy Day in the Park 2.0 event starting at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 20 at the Keizer Rapids Park.

The goal is to enjoy the day outdoors, regardless of the weather.

This event is free to the community and will have activities planned for adults and kids including a bounce house/obstacle course, boat rides on the Willamette, nature trail hikes, and more. Free hot dogs from Adam's Ribs Smokehouse will also be available.

Register your security cameras with KPD

The Keizer Police Department is asking Keizer residents with surveillance video cameras to help fight crime in the city.

The new SCRAM (Surveillance Camera Registration And Mapping) program allows residents to register their home or business cameras with the department. In the event of a crime in the vicinity where the camera is placed, officers might then contact owners and request relevant footage.

Registration includes the camera owner's name, address, contact phone numbers, details regarding when the camera is in operation and how long any footage is retained. Registration can be completed at bit.ly/kp-dcam.

Once registered, officers will contact owners directly to request appropriate video surveillance footage. Any footage collected may be used as evidence during any stage of a criminal proceeding.
