

Fitness stations could be in place by mid-June

By ERIC A. HOWALD
Of the Keizertimes

New fitness equipment destined for two Keizer parks has been ordered and is expected to be ready for use by mid-June, said the Keizer business manager leading the charge.

Jeff Davis, who has developed and helped fund the project, provided an update to the Keizer Parks Advisory Board at its meeting Tuesday, April 9.

Davis said the equipment will arrive in about a month and he hopes to have it up and drunning by the second week of June.

"I am going to head out with Robert [Johnson, Keizer's parks supervisor,] soon to figure out the best location and Mark Caillier is going to help coordinate getting the pads put down," Davis said.

Claggett Creek Park will receive a tamper-proof seven-station multigym, produced by Outdoor-Fit Exercise Systems. The single piece of equipment enables users to do regular or assisted chin-ups and dips, knee raises, back extensions, squats, push-ups and calf raises. Country Glen Park will be the recipient of a set-up of high and low chin up and push-up bars along with two box stations that could be used in a variety of ways.

The Rotary Club of Keizer is backing Davis' plans with $25,000 over the next two years and the project received a $7,800 matching grant from the parks board. The value of the two projects slated this year is about $28,000.

Ag fest returns next weekend

The 2019 Oregon Ag fest will be held at the Oregon State Fair and Exposition Center on Saturday, April 27, and Sunday, April 28. Doors will open at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. on Sunday.

Visitors can participate in events aimed to help families better understand where their food, fiber, and flora come from. Virtually all events will be free of charge, and kids can ride ponies, plant seedlings, watch sheep get sheared, pet farm animals, and more. Shows and presentations like the Craft and Garden Show will be present as well.

Tickets are $9 for ages 13 and up and free for children 12 and under. Participants can purchase tickets at the door. Credit cards, cash and personal checks will be accepted. Free parking will be available.

There will also be a Ranch Breakfast on Saturday, April 27, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. Tickets are $6 per person and free for children under three years of age. All proceeds from the breakfast will benefit the 4-H youth programs.

To avoid the lines, tickets can be purchased in advance at eventbrite.com, or at a local Wilco Farm Store.
