FAITH DANNER Senior at McNary High School

#16 - Pitcher, Varsity Softball

Faith Danner pitched a complete game on Monday at West Salem, giving up three earned runs while striking out three in McNary's 12-5 win over the Titans.

Danner also helped herself out at the plate by going 3-for-5 with three RBIs.

She had another three-hit day against Sprague in the following game on Tuesday and was also the winning pitcher as the Celtics defeated the Olympians 13-4.

team up 13-9.

"We have a lot of fight in us," Jennings said.

While the offense did their part, it was the defense that carried the torch for McNary in the second half. The Celtics held West Albany scoreless for the final 14 minutes of the game and made sure the Bulldogs didn't have any easy looks.

McNary keeper Kylee Daulton also had several key saves late in the game to preserve the win.

"I was really impressed with our defense. When they needed to be clutch, they came in clutch," LaFramboise said. "And (Daulton) kept making saves and gave us more opportunities to score."

McNary will return to action at 8 p.m. on Tuesday as they travel to Corvallis to take on the Spartans.

As the Celtics move towards the latter part of their season, LaFramboise is hoping she can get her team to play with more consistency for 50 minutes.

"Right now, we are focused on keeping up with our consistency and playing at the same level in both the first half and second half," LaFramboise said.

McNary gets victory over McKay in first home meet

The McNary girls tennis team was victorious in their first home meet of the season as they defeated McKay on Thursday, April 18.

Both teams won four matches apiece, but the Celtics edged out the Royal Scots by a score of 9-8 to seize the win.

Lexy McKay was the only McNary singles player to win her match as she defeated Denise Hernandez Zamora 6-1, 6-2 in the #2 match.

After losing the first set, McNary's top singles player, Avery Haymowicz, extended the match by winning the second set 6-0. But she ended up losing the tiebreaker 6-4.

However, the Celtics took home three of the four doubles matches, starting with McNary's #1 team of Natalia Gonzales and Gina Munguia-Martinez, who won 6-4, 6-2.

Jorie Skipper and McKinsey Jarnagin won the #3 match 7-5, 6-1, while Ashlyn Lyda and Mackenzie Proctor took home the #4 match 6-3, 6-4.
