Business & Services SPOTLIGHT

Remodeling by Classic Homes Inc

4195 River Rd N • Keizer • 503-393-2875

Remodeling by Classic Homes is a family owned and operated construction business that was started by Sue and Gary Juran as Classic Homes Inc NW In 1992 building new homes in the Salem-Keizer area.

In 2003, their son Kyle Juran started Remodeling by Classic Homes as well as helping with the new homes and providing quality home remodeling and handyman work. In 2011, Gary Juran closed Classic Homes Inc NW and semi-retired leaving the new construction in addition to the remodeling to be managed by Kyle under the Remodeling by Classic Homes Company.

In 2017, The company moved to its current location at 4195 River Rd and added a new design studio with a large selection of tile, counter tops, flooring, carpet, and cabinet samples for their customers to choose from.

Recently Kyle's daughter Claire Juran has joined the company as the new interior design consultant, Claire grew up watching her Grandmother Sue pick out materials and colors for the new homes and remodeling projects and has grown into the interior design side of the business along with taking interior design classes.

They pride themselves with making sure they know what their customers want and need and turn the customers image of the project they want into a living reality. They strive to give their customers the absolute best value for the time and money they spend on their remodeling project, no matter how large or small the job. Remodeling by Classic Homes gives their customers the best craftsmanship, professional planning and job management with staff, employees, and subs who are skilled, experienced, knowledgeable, trustworthy, and professional as they attend to every last detail for a successful completion.

Remodeling by Classic Homes is heavily involved in the community and are members of the Keizer Chamber of Commerce, as well as the Salem Chamber of Commerce.
