forced the following batter to hit into a 1-2-3 double play, getting his team back into the dugout unscathed.

"Devon gave us a really gutsy performance to be honest," Keeker said. "He had to deal with a lot of traffic on the bases and a lot of stressful innings."

"It was huge for us to make a big play in a big moment like that."

Rennick Jeffries pitched in relief of Bedoya in the and also got out of a bases loaded jam in the bottom of the sixth to give his team a chance to extend the game in the top of the seventh.

With one out in the frame, Simpson and Martin hit back-to-back singles to put McNary business. However, that would be as far as the Celtic threat would get as the next two hitters, Alex Tavera and Benson, would each fly out to end the game.

McNary hopes to end Mountain Valley Conference play on a good note as they travel to Bend on Saturday for a doubleheader with the Lava Bears with the first game starting at noon.

"We just have to come focused and ready to play," Martin said.
