Celtic band takes show on the road, brings home medals

The State OSAA/OMEA solo and ensemble competitions were held on Friday, April 26 and Saturday, April 27 at Pacific University. The McNary band had three students that performed at the state solo competition, and three groups that performed at the state ensemble competition.

The Celtics small brass ensemble trio Nathaniel Eggert, Dante Olivo and Kyler McNought took third place and all played the trombone.

In the solo competition, Kacey Whitfield won first place (french horn) while Nicholas Weathers came in second (clarinet).

Fandom and free comics

Pop culture fans and comic book readers of all ages turned out in droves for Free Comic Book Day at Tony's Kingdom of Comics on Saturday, May 4.

In addition to free comics, attendees brought in donations for the Keizer Community Food Bank, and met some of their favorite characters and artists.
