Final passage also came on providing tax exemptions, at the request of the city of Salem, for multiple-unit housing in Salem. Negative votes came from Kyllö and director Jesse Lippold, both of whom said the money would not go toward education. Vice chairperson Sheronne Blasi, presiding in Goss's absence, said it was a matter of addressing urban blight and an opportunity for the district to support livable spaces.

The board granted a permanent easement for the Keizer Water District to use a water well and a pump station on the McNary High School grounds for the city's drinking water supply.

Also approved for final action were support of a continuum of care to provide federal funds for the homeless, and the results of the recent School Board election. Director Marty Heyen was re-elected from Zone 2, Satya Chandragiri won the Zone 4 seat for which Green did not seek re-election, and Danielle Bethell defeated Lee's re-election bid in the Keizer area's Zone 6.

The board accepted grants of $166,816 from the U.S. Department of Education for various needs of American Indian/Alaskan Native students, $30,000 from the Oregon Community Foundation for similar purposes, and $3,100 from the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund for a Pow Wow presentation for selected fourth-grade classes.

Of the personnel actions approved by the board, the following involve the McNary attendance area:

- Temporary full-time status for Christiana Rauch, Weddle Elementary School; Laura Spisla, Claggett Creek Middle School; and Brice Watterud, McNary.
- First-year probation full-time status for Joseph-Daniel Boyd and Jessica Rist, McNary; and Cierra LaBounty, Claggett Creek.
- Second-year probation full-time status for Britney Griffith, Keizer Elementary School; Kevan Johnson, Claggett Creek; Kyla Moeller, Whiteaker Middle School; and Julie Morgan, McNary.

• Resignations of Franklin Gauntz and Jason Heimerdinger, McNary.

The board designated June as LGBTQ Pride Month. It was the first time a proclamation of its kind was passed in SKPS. Members of the McNary High Gay-Straight Alliance and the Salem Chapter of PFLAG were on hand to accept the proclamation.

In the Spotlight on Success portion of the meeting, Mary Lou Boderman, coordinator of district music and drama school education, recognized the McNary band for winning second place in state competition.

of West Eugene/Junction City. Hill served with Charlie Company in Adhamiya, Iraq. At the time, the area was heavy with insurgents, and the locals were paying a steep price. Caught in the middle of warring factions, some 10 to 20 villagers a day were reportedly being killed as Sunni and Shiite waged war against each other.

Hill's sense of duty took him to Iraq after graduating from the Oregon National Guard

World Beat returns June 28

The 22nd Annual World Beat Festival of 2019 will kick off on Friday, June 28 and continue until Sunday, June 30 at Salem's Riverfront Park.

Friday Night at the Beat will begin at 5 p.m. and attendees will have a chance to experience the music, dance, food and traditions of over 79 nations and cultures. The Beat festival will open at noon and continue until 10:30 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

Friday's admission will be by donation only, and Saturday and Sunday admission will be $5 per person. To purchase tickets, visit salemmulticultural.org

Youth ChalleNGe program in 2006. He had attended McNary High School and worked at the Keizer Albertsons prior to enrolling in the Bend-based ChalleNGe program.

In the years since his death, Hill's death has been recounted in a book, They Fought for Each Other by Kelly Kennedy. The park was dedicated to him in 2013.

Hill was posthumously awarded the Bronze Star, a Purple Heart and the Combat Infantry Badge.
