Rotary installs officers

The Rotary Club of Keizer held its annual installation banquet on Wednesday, June 26, where Raeanne McDonald was named the club's 56th president.

The banquet tables were colorfully decorated by Debbie Ego's Events Planned Perfectly and a buffet dinner was prepared by K's Catering and The Hitching Post.

Outgoing club president A.J. Nash introduced the emcee of the evening, Jeff Davis, the 2019-20 president-elect. Though McDonald was installed as president she was unable to attend.

Along with the new president and president-elect, Alana Lang Neads was installed as secretary and Craig Williams was installed as the club's first new treasurer in over 20 years. Board members installed were Ryan Brush, Ron Freeman, Ron Hudkins, Erik Jespersen, Jane Lowry and Jeff Reynolds. H. Marc Adams remains as Keizer Rotary Foundation chair.

The Rotary Club of Keizer, established in 1965, has donated more than $1 million into the community.

Deadline July 10: Funds for food banks are available

Applications are now being accepted for the Emergency Food and Shelter Program Funds (EFSP).

Federal funds have been made available through the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)/Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) under the Emergency Food and Shelter National Board Program. The amount available for Marion and Polk Counties is $196,011 which is an increase of $24,283 from the prior phase. The Local Board will be accepting applications immediately. The deadline to submit an application is July 10.

Application materials and organization eligibility requirements are available online at www.unitedwaymwv.org. Click on the link for EFSP.

Agencies providing emergency food or shelter services may apply for funds. The Local Board, made up of representatives of nonprofit agencies, community members and local government, will make the allocations of funds to local agencies no later than July 19.

Agencies applying for funding may be asked to make brief presentations to the Local Board. Funds will be awarded based on the application meeting the requirements of the Emergency Food and Shelter National Board Program, the ability of the applicant agency to meet the reporting requirements of the program and the need in the community.

For more information on the application process, contact Betty Hart at hartmb30@msn.com.

Ren Festival returns

The 11th Canterbury Renaissance Festival will be held near Silverton for four days starting July 20 and will feature a dragon lair adventure this year.

The festival grounds, located off state Highway 213 east of Silverton, will be filled with a village as it may have appeared during the days of Queen Elizabeth I (late 16th century), interactive stage, and participants playing characters from the era. Attendees are encouraged to dress in period costume.

Activities will include sword fighting lessons, period archery, kids games and jousting demonstrations at noon and 4 p.m. each day.

Festival hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. two weekends—July 20-21 and July 27-28. Price is admission is $15 per day or $27 for a weekend for adults; for seniors and kids 6 to 12 cost is $12/day or $21 for a weekend. Kids 5 and younger are free.

Canterbury Renaissance Festival is located at 6569 Valley View Road, off of Highway 213. To learn more visit canterburyfaire.com.

Schools offer free lunches

The Salem-Keizer Public Schools have partnered with local agencies to provide free meals for children and teens aged 1 to 18 throughout the community during the summer.
