

KID ON THE STREET

Keizertimes dropped by the Keizer branch of the Boy & Girls Club earlier this summer to find out what was on the mind of some of Keizer's kids. This is what they had to say.

VIOLETTA

On what she wants to be when she grows up:

Something that would help the animals that are going extinct.

MIA

If she were president:

I would give the homeless homes and somewhere to live.

ANGELICA

If she had a super power:

Invisibility. I'm very independent and I don't like it when people get on my nerves, I just want to disappear.

MAKENNAH

On the best summer trip: Going to see my grandma in Mississippi.

ADAN

If he were president:

I would want to help people who don't have a lot of money, and stop bullying.

ABI

She's getting an early start on being a veterinarian:

Abi asks to see pictures of one of the staff member's cats, Mr. Pickles, every day.

TATIANA

If she were president:

I would make it so people don't have to fight and make sure people have equal rights.

KT on vacation

The McNary High choir and band programs took a trip to Europe earlier this month, where they performed in five different countries.

You too can have your photo in the Keizertimes. Simply take the paper to your destination, snap a picture with you and your group holding it, and send the photo along with everyone's first and last names to kt@keizertimes.com.
