

KPD raises over $9,000 for Special Olympics

On Saturday, July 27, the Keizer Police Department (KPD) raised more than $9,000 for the Oregon Special Olympics with their 5K Foot Pursuit for Special Olympics.

Jenny LeBelle, the local program coordinator for Marion County, said they were hoping for $3,500, and was brought to tears when she discovered that more than twice that amount was raised.

KPD Community Outreach Specialist

Dorothy Diehl said this was not the first time that the department has worked with the Special Olympics, though most of the events did not take place in Keizer. It's somewhat typical for police departments to support the Special Olympics.

"We wanted to do something in Keizer where our citizens could support us," Diehl said.

outscored Holiday on the boys side with 210 points.

Caleb Skipper won the fly and back in the 13-14 division. Brennan Whalen (15-18 IM), Andrew Zeller (11-12 free) and Zach Harrington (13-14 free) each won an event for Northwood.

Paris Boyd carried the torch for the Northwood girls as she won the 15-18 IM, free and fly. Evy Hales finished first in the 9-10 back and Amelia Pack was victorious in the 6-U fly.

Northwood's boys and girls teams also won three relay events each.

Northview Terrace placed fifth in the overall scoring with 156 points. They were led by their boys team, who picked up 123 of those points.

Zach Kilby was the only multi-event winner for Northview, as he picked up wins in the 15-18 free and fly. Jeremy Becker (13-14 IM) and Luke Stucker (13-14 breast) rounded out the individual wins for Northview.

The Northview boys also won three relay events.
