Mustang club raises over $1K in philanthropy

On Saturday, Aug. 17, the Capitol Area Mustang Club (CAMC) hosted the 10th annual Keizer Car Show at Whiteaker Middle School. There were 90 registered vehicles in attendance.

In previous years, the show was hosted at Skyline's Keizer Ford, but moved locations to welcome all makes and models – not just Ford's – and to open up more space.

There were over 50 awards given at the show including spectator and sponsor awards:

Kid's Choice: Clint Davis' 1996 Charger, "General Lee".

Ladies' Choice: Stacey Bauer's 2008 Mustang GT.

People's Choice: Jaden Rhines' 1968 Ford F100.

Finn's Auto Restoration Choice: Tim Hay's 1971 Ford Bronco.

Uptown Music Choice-Kids Zone Sponsor: Victor Wietzel's 1969 Pontiac Firebird.

Xfinity Choice- Title Sponsor: Robert Tresente's

1965 Ford Mustang Convertible Black.

CAMC Choice: Roger Maigel's 1926 Chevy Nova.

"We raised over $1067 for the Brent Strohmeier Memorial Foundation and $151 for the McNary High School Automotive Program," said CAMC Board Director and Keizer Car Show Chairman John Neice.

The Brent Strohmeier Memorial Foundation gives scholarships to students with an automotive hobby or students enrolled in automotive classes at a higher education institution. CAMC and Brent Strohmeier Memorial Foundation have been in partnership for many years.

The CAMC also wanted to give money to McNary's automotive program to help with the reconstruction and give back to their community.

They plan on hosting the car show at Whiteaker next year as well to continue welcoming all classic cars.

A: This electric green Mustang had a special surprise under the hood.

B: Tim Hay's 1971 Ford Bronco earned the Finn's Auto Restoration Choice award.

C: This turquoise and white Chevy Bel Air has a matching cooler in the back.

D: Karissa and Jason Cisco stand proud in front of their red Mustang.

New student IDs include mental health resources

In light of the growing mental health problem public schools are facing, Salem-Keizer Public Schools have printed mental health hotline numbers on the back of all high school and middle school ID's. This is part of their plan to support students mental health.

"This is in addition to adding an additional counselor at each high school last May and offering licensed mental health therapists in 29 of our schools," said Lillian Govus, the director of community relations and communications for the district. "We would love to expand that; however, there just aren't enough therapists to make it happen."

There are 65 schools in the district, making it the second-largest district in the state.

The Oregon Youthline, a free and confidential 24-hour crisis helpline for youth is one of the numbers on the cards. This line is staffed by teens from 4-10 p.m. and adults answer the phones all other times.

The Oregon Youthline is intended to give youth a place to talk, no problem is too big or too small to call about. (877)-968-8491 or text teen2teen to 839863

Both the English and Spanish National Suicide Prevention Lifeline numbers are listed additionally. This is a suicide prevention hotline that provides 24/7 help to anyone in a suicidal crisis or emotional distress. English 1-800-273-TALK(8255). Spanish 1-888-628-9454.

SafeOregon is on the cards as well; though it is not a mental health line. This is a line designed to report anything from safety threats to drugs.

SafeOregon is a statewide network that allows students, parents and schools a place to report safety tips. (844)-472-3367.
